Camosun Scanning Project 2020

The project is to supplement the Camosuns done by UVIC from 1906-1945 and stored at:

<https://archive.org/details/camosun?sort=-date>

Alumni Members (1969) of the project

The Victoria High School Alumni Association is indebted to the generous alumni who spent hundreds of volunteer hours scanning Vic High Camosuns so they can be more easily searched by the dedicated Alumni volunteers who manage the school's historic archive collections. The Vic High Spirit is alive and well and always will be.

Fudgee-O cookie.

1978 has proved to be a challenging year for upgrading Vic. High's school spirit. Our new Vice-Principal, Mr. Higgs, and much of the staff, managed to become quite "wrapped-up" in promoting the circus.

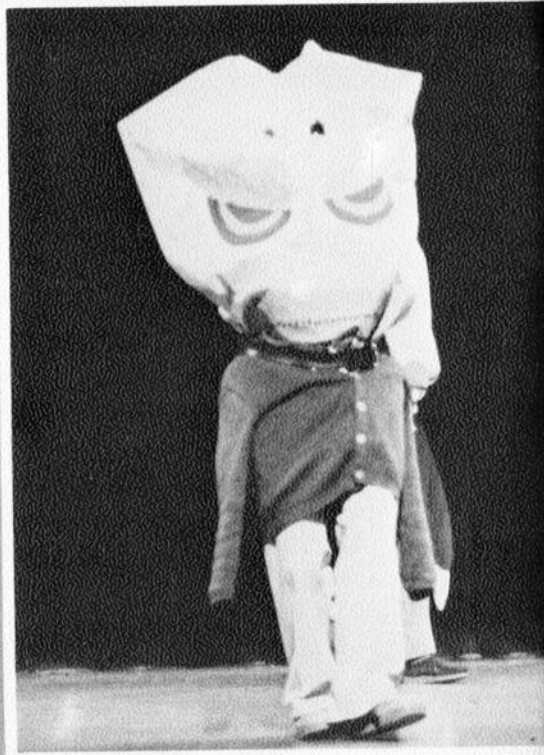

"O.K. Mac, what have you done with my wife?"

The cake walk.

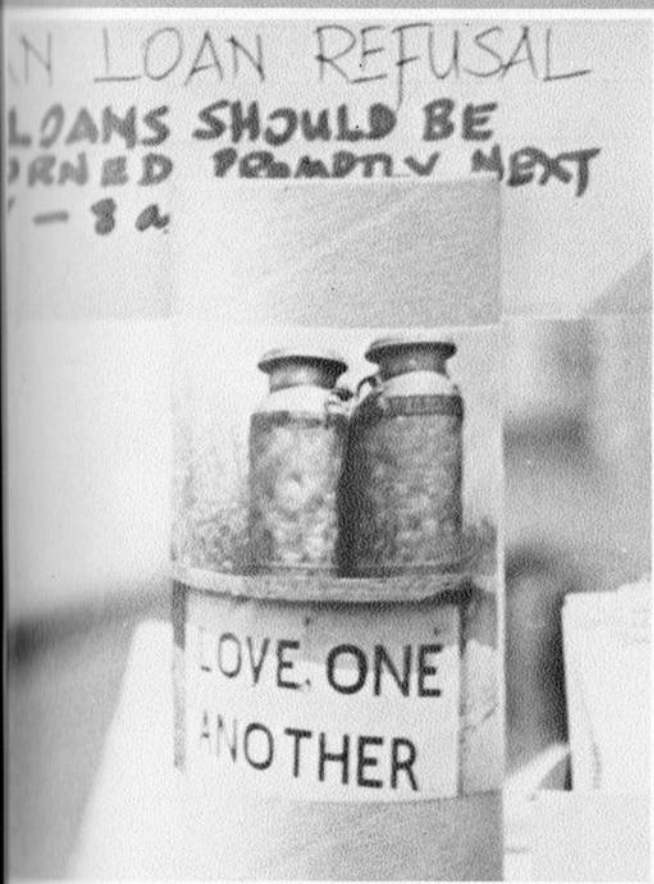

Three cheers for the janitors.

The Bloopers.

Love one another.

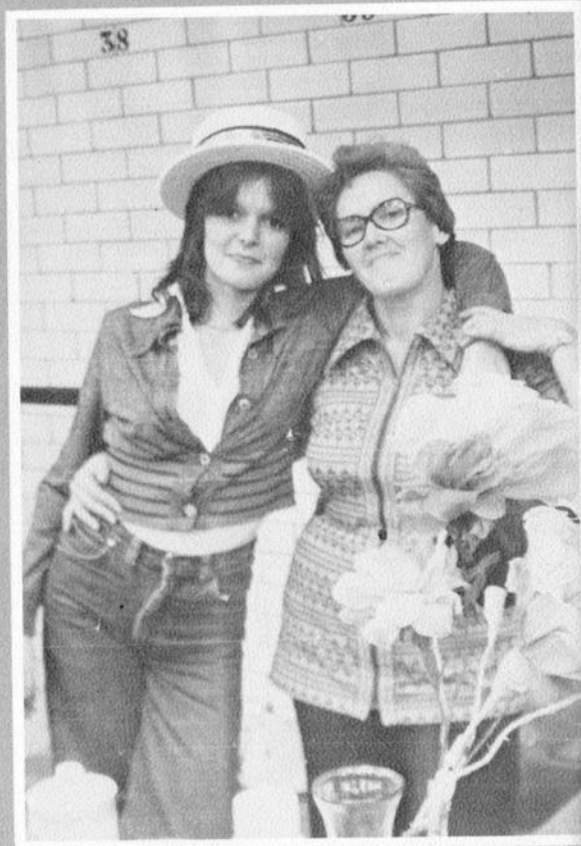

"Look, no cavities! Look, no teeth!"

The Biology 12 classes enthusiastically contributed to Christmas spirit by gathering extra food for the hamper drive. Love triumphs!

Remember the times we shared together?

"Will we last on Broadway?"

"This is not 'The Way We Were' "

"California, here WE come."

"Into each life a little rain must fall."

"Whose contact lens was it?"

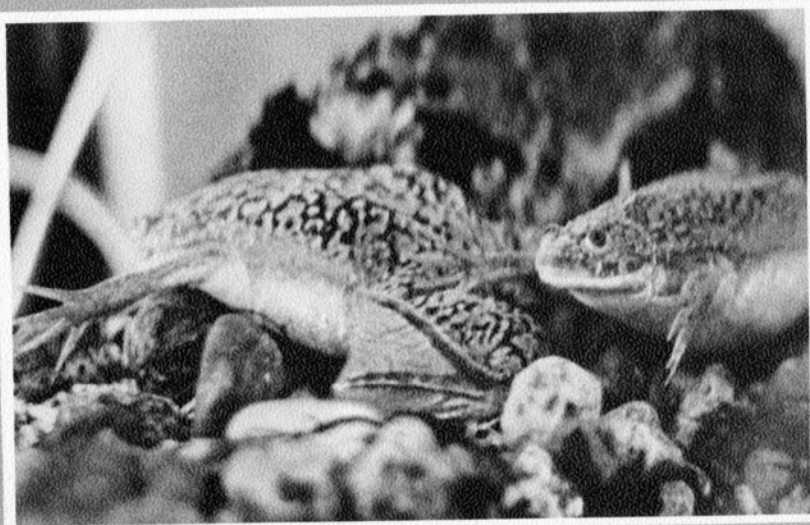

If it gets too warm, sound the alarm.

"Who'd we mop up?"

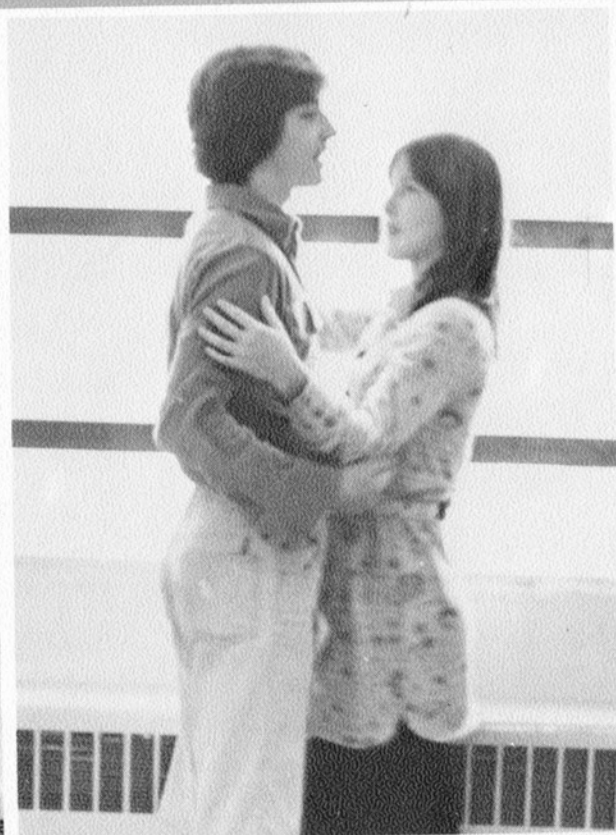

But then I wonder how we could let our companionship, our priceless possession of friendship, slip through our fingers, so that we may never totally grasp it again.

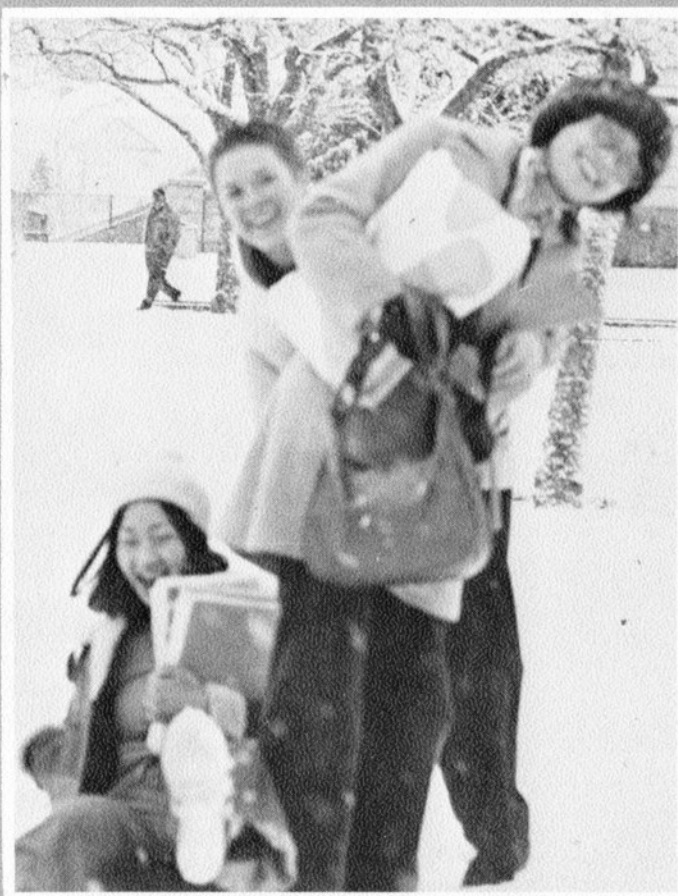

"All I want to do is play leapfrog."

Sleeping Beauties.

"The closer she gets, the better she looks."

Folks out of focus.

The Choir

This hardworking group had an exciting and harmonious year under the direction of their conductor, Mr. Murray. They travelled to California with the band and had a great time. Special thanks to Mr. Higgs and Miss Ruckle for chaperoning their trip.

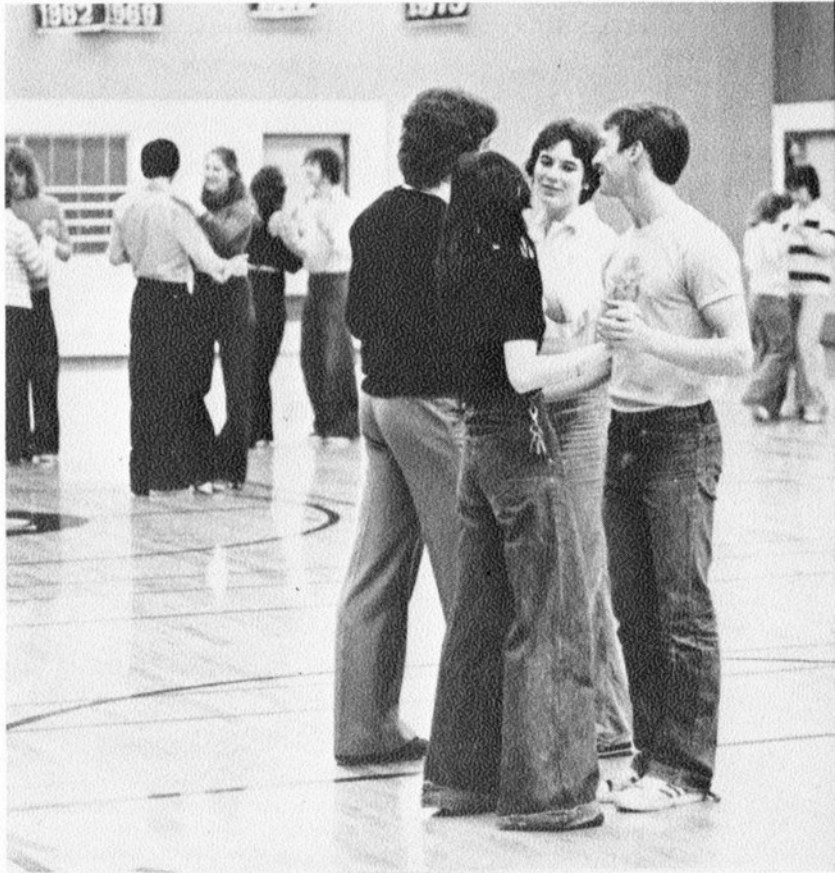

The Band

The Band had both a busy and successful year. Besides having a few concerts and other fund raising events, they had a terrific trip to sunny California in February. Thanks to Mr. Murray helping this musical group.

CAMOSUN

J. Duncan Lorimer

When we look back on this year we can all feel proud of our school and of our achievements. We have done well in athletics with participation at the Island and Provincial levels. Our Drama Department has had a particularly successful year with two outstanding productions, "The Cagebirds" and "Midsummer Night's Dream". Add to these activities our highly successful Circus and we can remember with satisfaction our 1977-78 school year.

Again, the Camosun editors have given us an outstanding publication as a permanent record of our year's activities. Our grateful thanks go to all who spent so many hours on its production.

In closing, let me use the words of one of our former Principals, Ira Dilworth, who wrote fifty years ago in the Camosun this message to the 1928 grads:

"We trust that you may have gained from your association with teachers and pupils, from the instruction offered in our class-rooms, from the ideals set forth from time to time, some strength of character, some wisdom which may help you in your course through life. We are proud of the achievement of the students of this school in the past. The challenge now comes to you to go beyond this and carry the name of the Victoria High School to still further honour."

J. Duncan Lorimer

Mr. D. Higgs (Vice-Principal)

Friendship, the theme of this year's Camosun, has a language of its own. As Thoreau suggested, the language of friendship is not words, but meanings. It is an intelligence above language.

Make opportunities to get to know the people around you — your fellow students and teachers alike. The friends you make in later years may be brilliant, talented and lovable, but the friends you make while at school are the best because they don't have to be any of these things — just themselves. Look for people who will accept you as you are, and who care for you as an individual.

In The Searcher, Thomas Blake gives a clear insight into the nature of a friend:

"I looked for my soul
But my soul I could not see,
I looked for my God
But my God eluded me,
I looked for a friend
And then I found all three."

As you go forth from Vic High, may your search be successful.

D. Higgs

Mr. H. Runer

(Assistant to the Principal)

The Camosun theme this year is companionship. As we thumb through the pages we can see this expression throughout. Many of the friendships gained will last for years.

Close association with our fellow students in the classes of Art, Music, Shops, Food and textile courses help to make the school experience more enjoyable.

Companions who contribute to the honour of the School through sports and clubs enjoy many fond memories of their school years.

Close companionship this year helped to make our Circus highly successful.

Finally the experience of once in a lifetime graduation exercises will remain forever in the memories of those who participated.

Here we are at the end of another year, and for grade 12's their last! Many happenings made the school year, such as the Miss Camosun Contest, Anything Goes, Circus '77 ... etc.

These and other activities were run and co-ordinated by students — students who put in that extra time after school or at lunch hour to achieve great success in their chosen activity.

This was a great year despite changes of the school system, complaints about students, teachers, and Parliament itself. I would like to thank my Cabinet for the valuable advice, and for the tolerance they showed three times a week at the 8 A.M. Cabinet meetings. Special thanks go to Mr. Higgs, Mr. Lorimer and the Governor General, Mr. Wickstrom for their consoling guidance in helping me solve problems I encountered.

To the undergraduates, I have only one thing to say: make Vic High what it should be, "Palma Non Sine Pulvere," but enjoy the year while you do so. To the Grads of '78: the future rests on our shoulders for we are taking our places in an adult world and each of us will have to accept responsibility for his actions and decisions.

Best Wishes, Gary O'Donnell

The most difficult thing in life is to know yourself. —unknown—

Mr. J. Andrews: Definition of a test is a glorified quiz; definition of an exam is a (glorified)² quiz.

Mr. A. E. Frederick: "The reason being is that ..."

Mr. E. Berryman: We are told that he is looking to hire a student to remind him of the daily block schedule.

Mr. T. A. Briggs: What does he write on those mysterious blue slips?

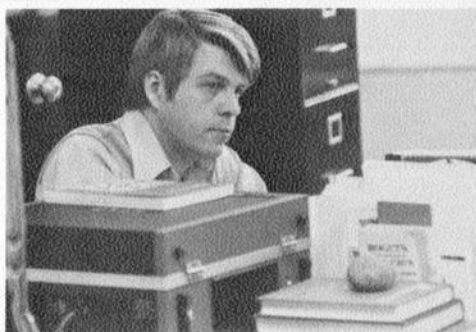

Mrs. J. Donaldson: Don't let her catch you talking while she's talking.

Mr. T. W. Mayne: "The Mayne Man" has reminded us time after time that he is a person with a past.

Mr. J. M. Peramaki: He looks like a "real teacher". Hopefully that's a compliment.

Mr. C. L. Nesmith: "Mr. Psycho-Analysis" decisively states, "neither here nor there".

Mr. B. McHugh: His talented hands lead us to believe he was trained to direct planes on a runway.

Mr. M. J. Lund: "You Chowderheads" was often used by Mr. Lund to describe his favourite students.

Our teachers all hard at work!?!

Mr. J. Hopper: He could lead a protest march in favour of total silence.

Miss B. Westman: She secretly practices for future staff ping pong tournaments.

Mr. G. L. Andrews: "We have some special rules in this place."

Mr. J. J. Baur: "The man with the impish grin," was described by one of his admiring students as "the most".

Mrs. M. Fishwick: A model teacher who is famous for her speed-writing.

Mr. R. W. Wickstrom: The "Governor General", may make mistakes, but they always happen on Fridays, or too early in the morning, or ...

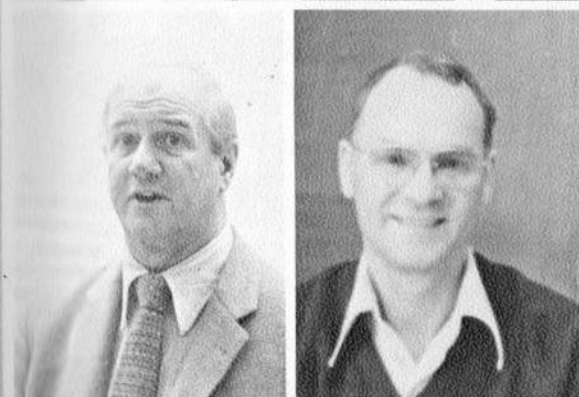

Mrs. E. C. deVilliers: "I guess I forgot to mention, final exams are today."

Mr. B. W. McCarron: He manages to remain mysteriously calm. "Still waters run deep".

Mr. B. Cahill: "Nuts" has often told us to stop nit-picking. "Mmmm, very good thinking sir."

Mr. D. B. Camp: He enjoys counting crows in between his "salty sea stories."

Mr. W. Brooks: "The man with the Pepsodent smile," has been known to ask, "Have you been rolling in the grass?"

Mr. R. Blasner: "Blaze" impresses his classes by demonstrating the "rotation" of his "north and south side."

Mr. B. Chan: "Fast Talker" is famed for his work on the Camosun and his magic elbow.

Mr. E. B. Bryans: "Alright class, today we're going to play hotseat."

Mr. K. L. Newell: "Hot dog" often gives the impression that he has a "one track" mind.

Mr. B. R. Somers: This "ski buff" enjoys cruising around in his "super-jeep".

Some new teaching methods are demonstrated here.

Mrs. F. M. Reimer: "Quiet please, SOME of us want to hear the announcements."

Mr. R. C. Fell: He cunningly watches our every move over his glasses.

Mr. G. English: He has helped out the school with many "constructive" ideas.

Mr. J. T. Chell: He's the only teacher who admits he has the hots for "Charlie's Angels".

Mr. A. Valdal: He has the usual sadistic traits of a P.E. teacher.

Mr. Cullin: "You don't have to know this but I'll tell you anyways."

Mr. D. P. Clark: He helps keep the school lawful. "Now supposing . . ."

Miss B. A. Armstrong: Don't try to leave her class without cleaning the kitchen.

Mrs. V. Egan: She always manages to have a winning team.

Mr. A. C. Brice: Being the tennis coach, he is a great "service" to the school.

Mr. R. F. McTavish: Mr. McTavish is able to "steer" most of his students in the right direction.

Mr. D. Johnston: We've heard that he secretly dreams of becoming a student again.

Mr. W. A. Ashwell: If he ever decides to give up teaching, he'll surely be offered a job scrubbing desks.

Mr. A. L. Paone: Sitting on a desk in his class can be hazardous to your health.

Mr. A. N. Foxgord: He describes everything as "Mickey Mouse," and often admits honestly, "Sorry, my mistake."

Mr. T. Henrich: He wants to live long and so he is constantly, "running for his life".

"Step right up, ya' can't lose."

Mr. G. Sinclair: "Not one, but two. Not one, but two."

"And I thought we'd miss Sesame Street."

Mr. F. A. Packford: "Skipper" is not a man of cliches.

Mr. M. J. Hemming: Many students live solely for his dazzling slide shows.

Mr. T. Tobacco: What would he and his classes do without the cafeteria?

Mrs. M. Miles-Herman: She has given a great deal of aid to the New Canadians this year.

Mrs. L. Allison: She has found eternal energy for disciplining brats, greasers, etc.

Miss H. A. Ruckle: A visit to her office is like a dose of feeling better.

Mrs. M. J. Burgis: Maybe someday she'll manage to make it to homeroom.

Mr. T. F. Harris: "If you ask me that one more time I'll poke your eyes out."

Mr. J. Murray: "Try it again. Sing a 'C'."

Mr. F. Sedgwick: We hear he encourages his students to "drive" towards higher education.

Mrs. M. A. Coburn: "Only eight pages of homework tonight because we have a big exam tomorrow."

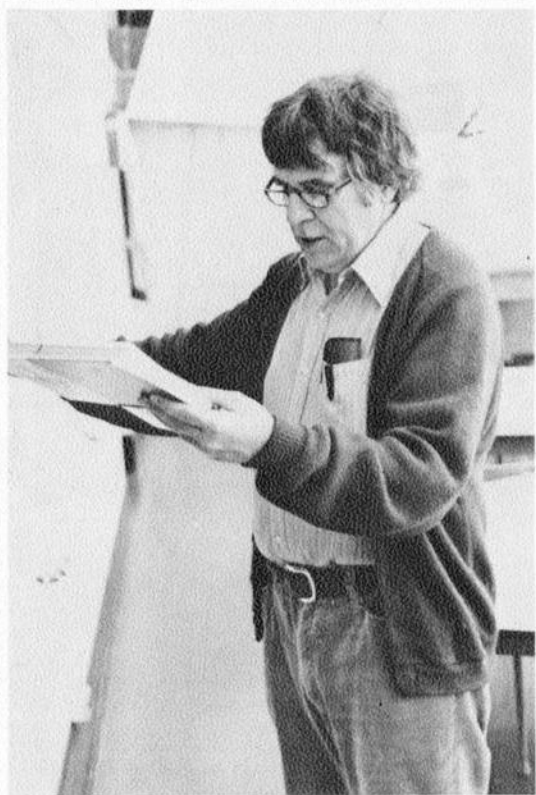

Miss B. Hanslip: "Hani" seems to be famous for making her student's business her business.

Mr. J. E. Kreiser: He makes sure everything is kept scrupulously neat.

Mrs. P. Zellinsky: We hear she may soon distribute her home cooking films nationally.

Mr. J. L. Owen: He helps students to help themselves.

Mrs. M. Andrews: She is very strict about people smuggling fish food into her classes.

Mr. P. J. Gammon: "Now where did I leave my glasses this time?"

We live in thoughts, not breaths, in feelings, not figures on a dial.

Camosun Editor's Message

Throughout this year's Camosun, we have tried to capture the variety of companionship shown by staff and students, because, as many are beginning to realize, our years at Vic High may be the last during which such close relationships will ever exist.

I would like to thank the Camosun Div reps for their persistence and the Writing 11A class, some of whom put in many extra hours of work to meet the ever dreaded deadlines.

I am especially grateful to Mr. Chan for the constant reassurance and the helpful, though sometimes confusing, praise with which he guided the organization of the yearbook.

A very special thank-you also goes to Shirley Dunn for sharing her valuable time and effort and Mr. McCarron for his literary donations.

To the many even remotely involved in putting together the 1978 Camosun, thank-you for contributing to this year's book of memories.

Good luck to future Camosun staff members in continuing Vic High's reputation of consistently producing a yearbook of high quality.

Vic High's Photo Club

Once again the Photography Club has played a major part in the production of the Camosun. The many pictures presented in this yearbook were taken by last year's "old pros" and this year's "amateurs". Mr. Chan, the sponsor, wishes to thank the club members for their time and dedication and hopes that next year's photographers will work as hard as this year's.

div. 1: Mr. Fell

GREG ABBOTT: Unfortunately Greg did not complete this year. He exhibited theatrical ability through his brilliant improvisations while in acting. Too bad you had to leave early, Greg!

GURHAM BAINS: Gurham leaves us with these words: "I have gained much more from Vic. High than it has gained from me. Who shall benefit from education shall live a life of great knowledge among others."

MICHELLE BERTRAND: "Limbert" finally finished. (That's what you think "Lim".) We hope we'll see you at the "Spot" again next year. Good luck!

SUSAN BRADY: Susan has one main interest—Bruce. If her future plans work out (which they should) her life's wishes will be fulfilled. Her worst moment was attending 8:45 to 3:15. You couldn't mean school, Susan!?

GORDON BUSHELL: "Kunta Kint-aa" wants to find his roots. He was seen more than once digging in Farmers Fields. His worst moments were coming to school, and he regrettably says, "Good-bye".

NELLIE CHOW: Well-known sources have advised us that Nellie is a good student and dresses like a "foxy" young lady. Too bad we couldn't find her.

BILL COMBE: "Smith's" future plans are to become a tug engineer. Going to pull your own weight in the world, right? His worst moments were the ones spent in the office.

ANNE CREALLY: Anne, if she graduates, plans to travel around the world with only 100 dollars! Her worst moment was getting caught skipping out . . . for the 6th time!

SHARON DHILLON: "Dill" plans to go to university after she breaks out of Vic. High. Her most dreaded moment was walking into the wrong class first thing in the morning. (Zzzz. . .)

VALARIE EGELAND: Valarie plans to travel to Jamaica and anywhere after graduating. This old timer says that coming to school in the mornings and failing grade 11 were her worst moments. She says, "Quit while you're ahead."

MONTE FITCH: Monte's future plans are to try to become a successful carpenter. He's glad he finally finished and hopes he can pass life as well. Don't worry it'll probably walk right past you . . . and all over you!

DAVE GAVORA: "Genius" plans for the future to move to Alberta and become a motorcycle mechanic. Dave's farewell words are, "I shall not return." He says, "come late, leave early," and "Don't eat any of the food they serve in the cafeteria."

DONNA HALL: "T.B." dreaded going to school Mondays and Fridays as well as being caught in her famous cafeteria card games. Her ambitions lie in rock group interviews and travelling to Hawaii. Donna is glad to be saying so long to school for good.

IAN HOWES: "Bubba" plans to get married to R.L. and make money. Ian's worst moment was when L.B. knocked out his tooth. His farewell words are, "Good Bye". He says, "Make studies; skip out."

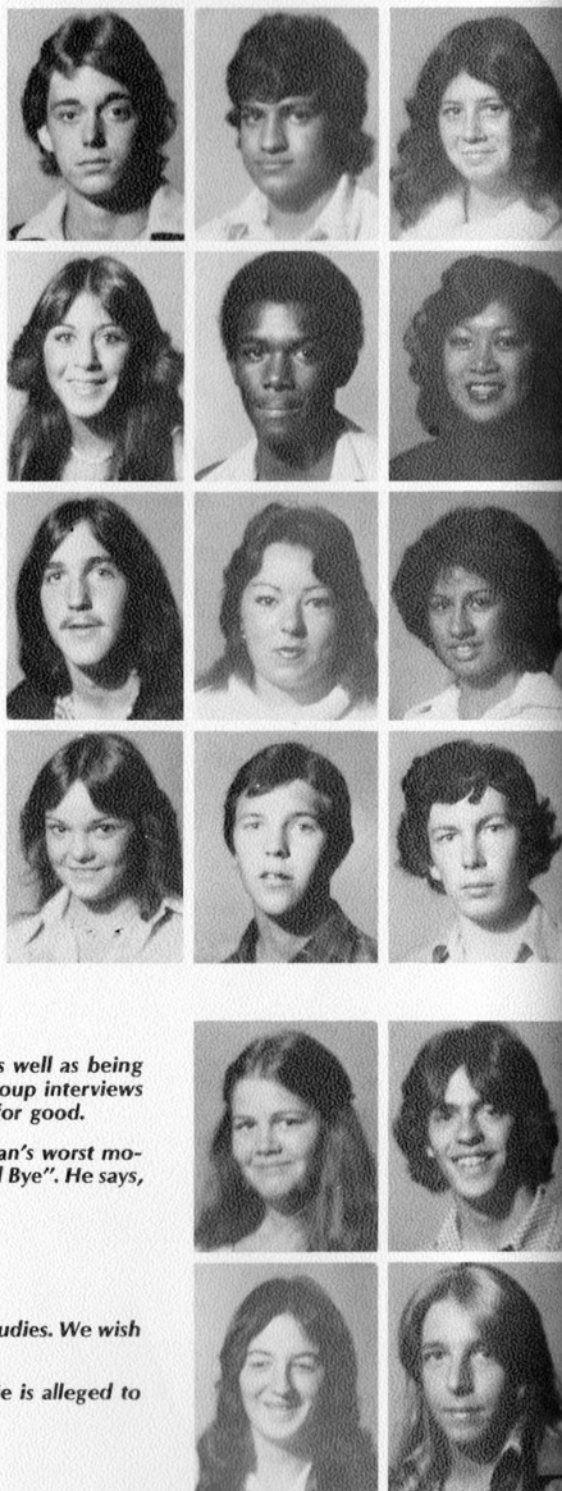

DEBORAH HULBERT: It seems as if Deborah's hardest courses were her studies. We wish her luck in future endeavours.

HAROLD JEFFREY: Harold has proved himself a proficient mechanic. He is alleged to have spent much time with S.G.

misplaced persons:

SHARON HEPBURN: After graduating Sharon wants to meet D.B. in Kamloops, live in Prince George and ski. Her worst moments at Vic. High were going on the grass hockey trips to Salmon Arm and Kelowna. There is a secret behind that statement!

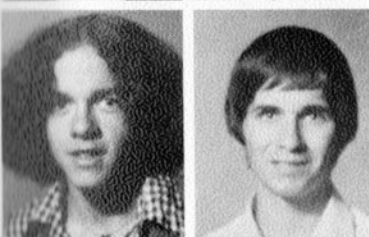

HERMAN LENARCIC: Herman has had some trying moments at Vic. High such as getting caught smoking and skipping out. He hopes to be a "shockingly" good electrician after grad.

KERRY JORDAN: Kerry wants to have his own business so he can have the feeling of power when he fines everyone. "Stretch" is convinced that Vic. High is, "B.C.'s future second penitentiary."

STANLEY LEE: "Stanley Lee-Lee" plans to go to university and into the medical field. His worst moment was going on stage without having his name announced. Stan says, "Don't try to get too smart." We'll try not to Stan!

TONY MAQUIRE: "STONE" plans to leave civilization and become a naturalist. His worst moment was going to all his classes. Tony's final statement is, "Grade 11 was the best 3 years of my life." Borsg!!

DONALD McMULLEN: Donald wants to work hard and acquire a challenging and rewarding career? Sorry, Don, it's illegal in this province.

EDMUND NESLING: "Ed" wants to become a famous trumpet player and own a lot of women. Then he can go and blow his own horn. (I'll bet!!)

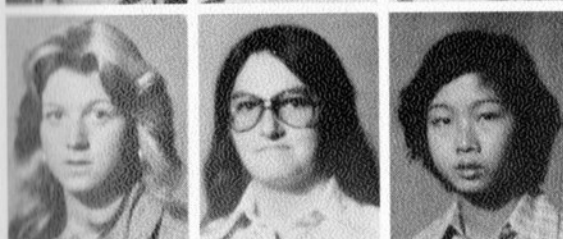

SHON O'HANLEY: "O'Hanley's" future plans are to become rich. (Joke, right?) His worst moment was being knocked out at a Tyee game. "O'Hanley" says goodbye to his beloved school. (Sob, sob!)

GREG PELLIZON: Greg's infamous words of wisdom are, "Quit grade 11 so you don't have to go through grade 12." His worst moment was getting caught gambling. Winning or losing?

TERESA PRIOR: "Tree's" plans for the future are to become a doctor. Her final words are, "Good-bye Vic. High—hello cruel world." "Smile, God loves you . . . even if your math teacher doesn't."

MELANIE RATCLIFFE: "Mel's" future plans are to become a somebody. Her worst moments were lunch hours, and talking in front of classes. Melanie warns grade 12's: "Watch out, school isn't as easy as it used to be".

DANA ROBINSON: "Great Dana" is going to go to B.C.I.T. and live in residence. She hopes to get into the "Forge" just once!

LORETTE SCHAUBROECK: "Lovely Lorette" plans to do some travelling, perhaps in Europe. Her worst moment was falling up stairs. Whatever you say, Lorette!

WINNIE SHUM: Winnie plans to continue her education . . . if she can survive the P.E. runs outside. She can still be seen wandering the halls saying, "Has anyone seen my locker?"!

RHONDA SOULLIER: Guess what? Rhonda wants to start at grade one and do it all over again!? How terribly mind-blowing! Some day she envisions herself as a movie star.

SUE TANNER: In leaving, Sue says, "Most of the teachers are great." Even though she took Chemistry and Algebra over and over, we're sure she'll succeed in nursing.

KARL ULLRICH: Karl's plans are to go far away, collect large monthly installments and receive all the extras that come with wealth. His worst moments were grades one, twelve and those in between. Sounds like you've had a swell life!

MARIO WEBER: Mario's future plans are to join the army. He felt it was unjust for him to get Mr. P. for construction. Well, that's insubordination, soldier!

JANET WILKINSON: "Tex's" future aspirations include moving to Duncan, getting married, owning a farm, and getting into hairdressing. Janet would appreciate toilet paper in the washrooms. Wouldn't we all?

SCOTT WYBERT: Scott plans to be a bum after graduating and later on become a carpenter. There's nothing like working your way up in life! He feels Mr. P. and he won't quite make the most compatible list.

div. 2: Mrs. deVilliers

KRIS ADAMS: "Yank" wants to become a peanut farmer after graduation, and maybe become the president of the USA. His best moment was meeting Sherri, again and again and again; in spot after spot.

DAVE BALDWIN: When Dave graduates he wants to fly, rock on his guitar and live where he can have lots of parties. His worst moments at Vic. High were the long days without Mary Jane. Departing words are, "I'm just glad it's over."

BILL BIMB: "Bimbo's" going to work at travel (?) . . . or was that travel at work? "Bimby" says, "I made it" and would like to express his sincere thanks to the entire staff. Sincerely yours . . .

EDWARD BRAGG: "Ward's" future plans are to become a machinist. Such fine arts as dancing in P.E. do not appeal to Ed's sense of enjoyment.

JEREMY BUSHELL: Jeremy is looking forward to his after grad where he can take out his frustrations from having to write the chem. exam by 1%. Hope you passed!

LORNA CHAN: Lorna's ambition is to become the next dictator of Germany (any special tactics in mind, Lorna?) In parting she says, "Auf Wiedersehen". (!) Verry interesting! Heil Chan?!

PAT CHOW: "Putt Putt" has not yet decided on his future as he is still suffering from a common disease: "frustration in class". So-long, Pat.

LOIS CORBIN: Lois plans to be a dental assistant. She didn't tell us much, but we know there's more. She can't hide it from us . . . the "force" is with us.

TIM CURTIS: "Tiny Tim" spent most of his time either in the shops or tearing up the rugby field. That's what we were told but of course we know better than to believe it!

TOM DICKIE: Tom wants to move to the moon and open a quaint little boutique. His words of wisdom are, "Don't smoke on camping trips because the sleeping bag you burn could be your girlfriends." Sounds interesting.

PETER ENG: "Pet's" one of our "street corner boys". He participated on the rugby team and in the "Excuses for Absenteism" club.

DON FELS: "Mr. Fells" is keeping something secret. All he told us is that he's "gonna travel". Don't worry Fells, whenever you "fall", we'll be "fallowing".

KELLY FONG: "Hong Kong Fong" wants to meet King Kong and take over the world's largest computers!! His worst moment was taking pictures in the rain. (I guess that could "dampen" anyone's spirits!)

MIKE GIBBS: Mike plans to make his second million and become of legal age to drink. Some let downs for Mike were meeting S.O., and his counsellor telling him to go back to grade one. He says, "I'll see you a round, like a doughnut." We agree with your counsellor!

JENNIFER HALL: "Jo" wants to go to either university or Bible College, and eventually have her own business. Good luck Jenny, if anyone could accomplish that it will be you.

CAROL HOYDAL: "Hattie" plans on becoming one of our world travellers after graduation. Carol will always remember spilling acid on herself in Chem. She still had a good time and says, "Enjoy it while you can." What's "it", Carol?

LORI JENNI: When, and if, Lori breaks out of Vic. High she's going to have a great time. Eventually she will own a fast car and "ramble on". Lori doesn't like Jocks and says, "your time will come". We know, Lori, our mothers told us about it a few years ago!

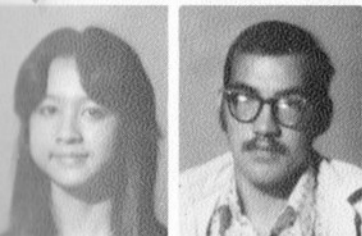

JOE KRANCEVIC: "Smokin' Joe" wants to graduate to the freedom of being tied down by a job. C'est la vie!

MALCOLM LOGAN: "Berry" plans to be an auto mechanic or machinist. His worst moments were P.E. make-ups. Look at it this way; 12 minutes of running for one hour of skipping out isn't bad!

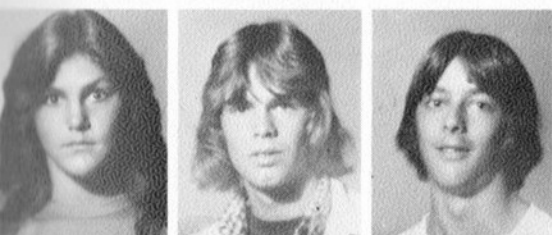

ROB MAINWARING: Rob is keeping everything hush, hush. He's not telling us anything and says everything is great. (Are you sure there's no skeletons in your closet, Rob?)

GAIL McDONALD: Gail plans on becoming "artistic the rapist". A what? Gail was one of the few elves who helped put this book out and is willing to admit it.

CHRISTINA NG: "Pluto" plans to travel in her "Hot Car" after suffering painfully through her driver's-ed class. Christina is glad it's finally all over. (Don't burn yourself.)

DOUG OTTENBREIT: "Hopalong's" future plans are to go to college. His parting words are, "I know how much you'll miss me." Words could not express your sorrow upon parting, right?

ANNIE PERRY: Annie plans on becoming a nurse if she doesn't freeze in fire drills first. (Freeze-fire, huh? Sorry something didn't click there Annie!)

CRAIG PRUDHON: Craig wants to get into plumbing, and "flush away our problems". He is currently sitting on an elbow pipe expressing his joy about the end of school.

TIM READY: Tim plans to finish his truck and get out of debt. To him the cafeteria spells R-O-L-A-I-D-S. His parting words are, "Take 2 aspirins and call me in the morning."

CORY SHVETZ: "Shvetsy" wants to play in a band and, if he has time, get rich. He didn't tell us much more but if the band doesn't work out he can always open a meat store and call it "Shvetzky's Shnitzels".

LOUIS SOUSA: Louis wants to be a journeyman electrician. Like many of us he took somewhat of a disliking to homeroom. Louis wants to say, "Bye-Bye . . . I hope everyone liked it here as much as I did." This is supposed to be serious Louis!

MARK UMPLEBY: "Ump" wants to get a job that's rewarding and satisfying . . . he's going to be a pimp. (Umm . . .) Mark's words of wisdom are, "Don't walk through screen doors, you'll strain yourself."

PETER WELCH: Peter plans to finish grade twelve and shuffle out of Victoria. Pete did not enjoy filling out the questionnaire, when he could have been "booging"? Hmm . . .

LUICE YAN: "Yan" will be at Camosun College next year, and hopes she does better there than she did here. "Yannie's" parting words are, "Good-bye and good-luck."

JOHN ZANIC: "Zan The Man" has a multitude of future plans. Let us know when you've decided, Zan. His worst moment was "baring his buttocks" in co-ed P.E. "Hang" in there John!

misplaced persons:

PAUL CUBBON: His past, present and future plans are in carpentry. Maybe he'll get lucky and be moved up in Cubbon's Lumber Yard. It's not what you know but who you know, right?!

DEBBIE ENGLISH: Our "future cop" did not get much of a kick out of not graduating. Debbie's parting words are, "Thank God I'm leaving." (Are you sure now?) Her words of wisdom are, "If you skip out, don't get caught." Now you're catching on!

JEANIE LEONG: Jeanie is one of the dressy ladies of our school. Her clothes say more for her than any words we could write so look for yourself!

EDITH VOORWINDE: Edith left before she had a chance to fill out the questionnaire. From last year's Camosun we noted that Edith's ambition was to learn how to walk up stairs. Maybe she succeeded and dropped out because she had no further ambitions?!

div. 3: Mr. Newell

CHERYL BANNING: "Chubbs" started the year off well by forgetting how many feet are in a yard. After Vic. High "Charol" (as one teacher preferred to call her) plans to marry J.D. and have three kids.

MELANIE BIRD: "Chuck" plans to move back to Ontario and get rich! Sound familiar? She hates Monday mornings, and says, "good riddons". Good riddons to you too, Melanie.

FRANCIS BUTLER: "Fran" wants to attend university and learn to teach the deaf. For reasons unknown to us "fran" did not like the Telestar dance!

RICK CHAN: Rick's future plans are simply to have fun—this obviously won't include Mondays mornings as these are Rick's worst possible moments.

CLAYTON CHU: "Alf" plans to attend university to become an educated bum. That line has been used before! His worst moment was falling up the stairs on the 4th floor. So, to everyone next year, "Beware of the stairways."

GRACA COSTA: See Div. 4, Ludres Costa. Ditto. What could we do, Graca? You didn't hand in a questionnaire.

PAUL CURTIS: Upon graduating Paul plans to seek employment at C.H.U.M. radio in Toronto, then live happily ever after with his wife and 18 kids. On his questionnaire Paul finally admitted to hating Bolivia!

DAVID do COUTO: Upon graduating Dave intends to continue his education. He aspires an influential business career. We're confident he'll be successful.

SANDRA ENGLISH: "Sam" plans to become a journalist and get rich. Her worst moments were Monday mornings. (Aren't they worst moments for everyone?) Sandra's words of wisdom are, "I'm glad it's you and not me."

RUSS FONG: When "Fing" graduates he hopes to rule the world. He's had no worst moments because he has yet to be caught. He says, "If you can't beat me . . . join me!"

GLEN GILMOUR: Glen hopes to ski his way to fame and fortune. He hated Chemistry and English 12 and maybe even grade 12. Glen seems to be obsessed with hate.

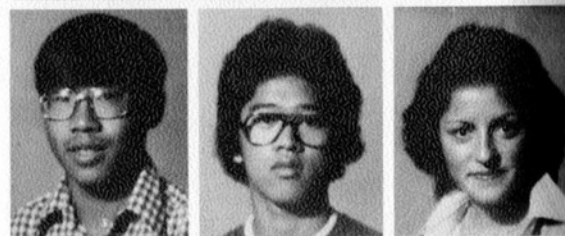

TOM HARDING: In his years at Vic. High, Tom has proved himself to be a thorn among many roses. We hope he will enjoy himself in his quest for a Ph.D. at Oxford.

MARK HEWISON: "Midget" wants to get a job and tour Canada. His worst moments included registration classes. Mark wishes everyone good luck next year and hopes they have easy classes.

CHERYL HOYLE: "Naih" plans to become a typist and then go to police college (eek!). In parting she says, "Austa la vista". Is that some new language?

DOUG JICKLING: Doug seems to be a bit shy and didn't want to release any information. After a great struggle we managed to find out that he plans to be a first or second class bum.

CINDY KIPP: Cindy wants to travel across Canada and party all the way. She hates getting up in the morning for school. Just think after this year you won't have to.

misplaced persons:

MARK LESLIE: Mark spends all his time over in the shops. He was too busy to fill out a questionnaire and so he'll have to be satisfied with this crummy comment. Too bad, Mark.

KARY OULTON: "Kerry's" future is undecided as was his questionnaire. He had "everyday" problems and no nicknames. Lucky person! He says, "none".

BERTHA KUM: "Birdie" wishes to travel around the world after leaving Vic. High. She enjoys Christmas and Spring break, although we're sure she'll give a hearty "ya-hoo!" in June.

MARIA LOHNER: Maria is going to travel to Europe and get a B.A. in either French or German. She also plans to become a stewardess. Although she got a "hot seat" in "psychology", she enjoyed school.

TONI MALLETTE: Toni plans to travel around the world and see N.B. go to the Olympics. Having the same teacher all afternoon was her worst moment. Ever thought about how the teacher must have felt?

BRUCE McDONNELL: Bruce kept himself well hidden this year. He is interested in Industrial Education and English. What we need in this book is an apathy page for all those people who neglected to fill in a questionnaire.

RON MCREDEY: "Mohammed Ali" plans to go to university. The first few days of school were his worst moments and his words of wisdom are, "Work hard and don't skip out."

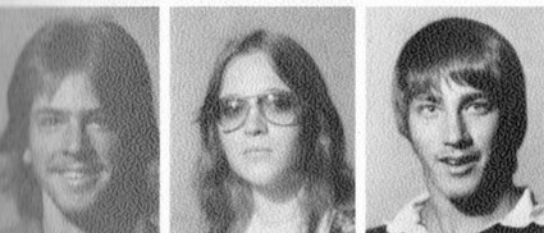

GLENDA NGAI: Glenda was this year's Minister of Athletics. She had a lot to do and was often seen running around the school like a chicken with its head chopped off. This must explain why Glenda was too busy to fill out a questionnaire.

KIM PETERSON: Peter kept busy with her swimming and basketball when she wasn't making bets with H.T. If Kim can survive 2 hours of layups, she plans to attend U Vic.

RON PURCELL: Ron quit at an early date. (We won't say what he quit.) He seemed to be interested in languages, so we will say au revoir, hasta la vista and Aufwiedersehn. Ron has returned, but the above still applies.

PETER REES: Trusty wants to become a brain surgeon and transplant shrubberies. All moments were his worst moments. He'd like to remind us that we are in one of the best run prisons in the country.

WAYNE ROOS: Wayne may be seen around the school wearing an Indian sweater, but look quickly because he doesn't attend too regularly. We found you, Wayne!

HEATHER SCHMITKE: Heather plans to travel and not work. She hates Christmas and exams. In parting she says, "Have fun and good luck!"

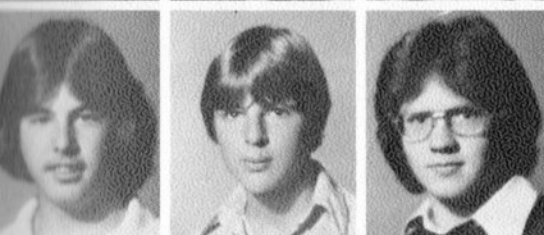

TERRY SIKLENKA: "Salinky's" future plans are to go to "Univercity". Is that a new city or a figment of your imagination? Terry parts saying, "Titans rugby team No. 1."

LAURA SPEAK: "Dimples and bugged about my last name by a certain Mr. K." plans to travel and make lots of money after grad. Her worst moment was walking outside when it was raining and her umbrella turned inside out.

COLLEEN THERA: "Collie Wallie" plans on getting married and having a flock of babies—hopefully in that order. Her worst moment was getting caught kissing her boyfriend by Mr. Lorimer.

LESLIE URBANIAK: "Banachek" would like to marry a rich hockey player and live on a horse ranch on the prairies. Eventually she'd like to work in the Canadian Embassy.

KIRK WENZEL: To be an electronic "Technician" is what "Weasel" plans. He learned to count when he tripped down the stairs and 100 looseleaf papers fell out of his book. Kirk didn't understand what wisdom meant.

CHRIS WILLIAMS: "Pig Bristle" made skis last year and now spends all his time on the slopes. We have been informed that he is starting a new hobby of sail surfing and that he drives like a maniac!

STEVE YEATS: When "Blurb" graduates he wants to win the silver broom and live happily ever after, like in the movies. His worst moments include Mr. Cahill's English 12 classes and fire drills.

div. 4: Mrs. Coburn

CARL ALCOCK: "Woolcock" is heading towards a career in carpentry. His worst moments have been spent "living" and working at Vic. High with only weekend leave. It's a tough life, hey Carl?

JANET BARR: In the future, Janet will go on to become a social worker or a primary school teacher. Her questionnaire led us to conclude that some day Janet could be the leader of a liberationist movement! (Alias Lady Godiva?!)

MIKE BIRD: All "Pumpkin" asks of life is to get rich and not work. (No problem, hey?) He had a lot of trouble selecting a farewell phrase but finally came up with "good-bye". How original!!

FELIX BURNS: When he did come to school "Felix the Cat" seemed to enjoy himself as he informed us, "It was fun while it lasted!" Of course he wasn't here as often as most people!

STACEY CAMPBELL: After grade 12 "Soupy" will retire on a thousand-acre farm with lots of money. He figures all that space will put an end to the cramped parking quarters he's suffered with at Vic. High.

GORDON CHAN: "Chan" seems to have something against pink. (Right, Gorde?) He hopes to visit Mickey Mouse during the summer then go on to university (into creative dancing?). Gordon would like to see more school "spirits".

STAN CHANG: The life of a voyageur seems to appeal to Stan. He hopes to see the world a couple of times over before settling down to open his own "business" and get rich. Have you considered the "funny money" business, Stan?

DOUG CHU: Doug plans to go to "Colledge", where he hopes to learn how to spell and get a good job. He envisions himself driving streets in a Porsche some day... dream on... and on... and on.

LUDES COSTA: "Lu Lu" is going to stay in shape for the rest of her life by working in the field of P.E. She remembers her worst moment as walking under a volleyball net without ducking and still having one inch headspace.

GABRIELLE DAMKE: Upon completing grade 12 Gabe plans to become a lawyer or work in the field of law. (We can't all turn out honest!) Gabe is sure she's going to regret graduating and warns next year's grads not to be so anxious to finish work.

GORDON DOAK: In the future Gordon wants to work as an electrician. Strangely enough, he disapproves of Monday mornings and Friday afternoons?? Not your average student!

VICTOR FONG: Victor didn't enjoy Mr. N's order to do "garage" detail in the rain? He feels grade 12 is "the most filling year of adolescence". So have fun at the feast next year, grade 12's.

NORA GLENDALE: "Nibs" plans to get married, have 10 kids, 24 grandchildren, four husbands, two dogs, three cats... and be a nurse too? (You may need to stick close to a hospital!) Her philosophy for undergrads, "Hang in there babe!"

ROBIN HOYLE: In a few years "Robbie" may be seen at the Queen's palace or soaking up the Riviera sunshine. She believes it is wise for a student to play dumb with the teachers in order to make them feel smart. (The feeling is mutual!)

COLIN JOE: Colin hopes to lead the life of a research scientist and try to "zero" G.C.'s account? His best moment at Vic. High was the '75-'76 Centennial. That gives us some idea of how much he loves this school. He didn't come to Vic. High until '76-'77.

KEITH LAM: "Stick" hopes to go to Camosun or U Vic. One of Keith's less bright stunts included smoking up the power supply in electronics. He advises the undergrads not to park their cars across from the school or "You'll be sorry."

MIKE LESYK: All we can remember about Mike is that he worked canning herrings—repeat canning herrings. That's probably where he was when he should have been filling out his questionnaire.

DAVE LOW: "Kwai Chang's" ambitions include returning to Ireland (fond memories of rugby?) and later in life acquire a wardrobe bigger than G.O.'s. K.F. says, "Smile, it's not the trophy but the race that counts!"

DICK MANSON: "Charles" plans to become a cop so he can keep the streets clear while his crazy friends tear up the roads. Must be in his blood! We can't imagine why he didn't enjoy dancing for the Camosun. Could it have something to do with a "tu-tu", Dick?!

DAVID McDOUGALL: At some time in the future "Super Mac" intends on working as a machinist. His worst moment was losing the Colonist Cup. Don't worry, you're not the only one looking for that cup.

SHERRY NGAI: "Squirt" has some words for the wise: "The life you live is for you to choose, so make it right so you can't lose. For life is here for you to see, and live as it was meant to be." Beautiful!

RANDY OWENS: Randy will continue to work on three bodies: his Red Special's, his own and . . . well, draw your own conclusions. He can be found at the "spot" or on a main cruisin' strip.

SYLVIA PHILIPPO: "Flop" hopes to live under the blue skies of California as a social worker. She feels school is easier to attend after coming close to being expelled. We imagine so!

RAJ PUREWAL: "Elvis" plans to tour Europe for a year then return to settle into a hard working life. He was disappointed when he lost at the Island Championship. What's the name of the game, Raj?

GREG REID: "Elvis" (#2?) claims he is heading towards fame and fortune. Either he has something against Friday afternoons, holidays and free periods or he read the questionnaire wrong. "Palma non sine pulvere." Try again Greg!

TREVOR ROSEBOROUGH: "Depicted Explicit" is certain that death will be a part of his future. He listed his most hated moments as "this mourning three weeks ago Friday and Dec. 2, 1976". Makes a person wonder!

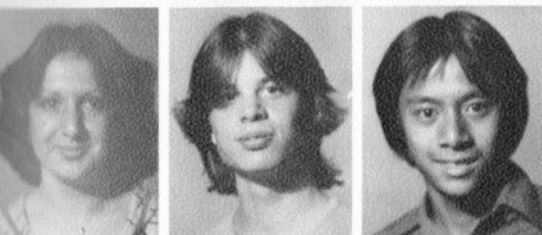

BERNADETTE SCHIPHORST: "Bernie" is one of our blue-eyed blond mystery students, crowding the halls of Vic. High without an identity. If somebody spots her, please tell her it's not our fault that her comment is so awful.

CLARISA SCHOENING: "Angel" plans a life as a lawyer and professional musician. She has been known to play a whole song with the band, in the wrong key! It will be interesting to see her method of operation in a courtroom!

PAUL SPENCER: Paul plans a career of building his own semi-acoustic, six-string dulcimer with two rickenbacker pick-ups. Aside from this Paul advises next year's grade 12's not to have a cakewalk in the circus!

BRUCE THOMAS: After graduating Bruce plans to move to New Zealand and where he hopes to attend university. Also known as "Chinese Hunter and Protector", for some reason he doesn't approve of the P.E. equipment.

CATHY VELTRI: "Wap" gave us a list of three of her future plans: 1) travel, 2) , 3) have babies. (Need we say more?) She advises that if you have any skipping out to do, save it all for one big "time out" at the end of the year.

PETER WESTMAN: Pete wants to get a job, live a hassle-free life and maybe be rich. (Maybe?? Strange . . .) As he leaves Vic. High he would like to say . . . We weren't allowed to print the rest!

RAYMOND YEE: Through chemistry, physics and math, Raymond has managed to calculate many ways to outwit and avoid us, so he's going to have to suffer with this lousy comment!

misplaced persons:

GORDON COOK: Gordon "wood" like to get a "bang" out of life in the field of carpentry. The last time we "saw" him he was "board" with the grad questionnaire.

TONY SILVAGGIO: "Tone" hopes to spend his life as a "tecnition" or an "educated bumb". (What's the difference?) His philosophy is, "If you don't come regular . . . don't bother." You can draw your own conclusions!

DAVE WILLIAMS: Dave is one of those mysterious people who comes and goes and is never seen. Too bad you didn't take enough time to fill out a questionnaire!

div. 5: Mr. Clark

JULIE ALEXANDER: "Jules" plans to travel to Europe and then attend a famous university (identity unknown). She will be disappointed if no honor pins are distributed next year. What about this year?

BRUCE ASHMAN: "Aussie" our Australian alumnus acceded to acquainting the teachers and students at Vic. High about the land down under. His last words: "No, I don't have a pet kangaroo or koala." Don't get in any "yikes", Bruce!

RAY BARRON: Ray hopes to find some luck and land a job. Sure hope Lady Luck is on your side, Rick. The Red Barron has a habit of forgetting the combination to his locker.

ANNETTE BLAIS: Annette plans to travel and hopefully get a clerical job with the government. Her bad moments were being on garbage duty. She's been hated by flies ever since.

RON BRAUN: This ambitious fellow plans to see a Neil Diamond Concert someday. His worst moments seemed to involve his studies. Now how can that be?

JANICE CHU: Jan's ambition is to become a nurse. She hates going up all those flights of stairs. (Didn't we all?) Upon leaving, she believes that school is not all that bad (questionable?).

CHRIS COTÉ: Chris plans to run away to Long Beach with Pat; enjoys lunch with Pat; dislikes people who don't like to hear about Pat. . . This questionnaire was meant for you Chris, not PAT!

TIM CRAWFORD: Hidden beneath the blank spaces on Tim's questionnaire was his desire to graduate and work. We wanted more than your name, rank, and serial number, Tim!

SHEILA DOERING: Monday mornings saw Sheila standing in the rain watching the salmon spawn. How fulfilling! After finishing school she plans to travel.

CINDY EVANS: Cindy plans to go to Utah to university, then travel. Among her worst moments was falling down the stairs during a fire drill. You're just one of many, Cindy.

JIM FOSS: "Skipper" wants to graduate and find a decent job. He doesn't like little surprises like tests he wasn't told about. Jim says, "Don't quit, you'll lose in the end." Looks like clear sailin', eh "Skipper"?

ROBERT GODFREY: Robert's nickname is Zig. He wants to work for 10 years and retire as a millionaire. He hopes the Totem teams will have a bit more success.

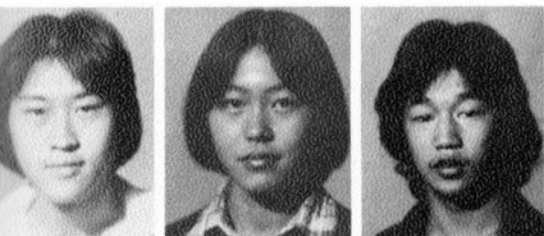

BUDD HOBBS: Soon the world may see "Rosie the Race car driver" or "Budd the carpenter". So much for future plans. Budd wishes a special good-bye to Mr. N. and Mr. T.

ALAN HUGGETT: Alan plans to become an electrical technician with the R.C.M.P. in Ottawa working on the "Cathedral Operation". What's the attraction about the Cathedral Operation?

LESLIE JOHNSON: "Lester" plans to go to Camosun and study criminal law. Falling asleep in class was Leslie's worst moment. Her final words are, "A school with no spirit is like a bed with no blankets." You get cold!

JEFF CHAPPELL: Jeff seems to be one of Vic. High's shy types. The only thing he let out was that he plans to get into an automotive trade.

SHERMAN LANG: Sherman's future includes kidnapping a computer!! He parts saying, "Schools were made with kids in mind . . ." Sounds like a cookie commercial.

ANN LEUNG: "P.S. If I hadn't been the div. rep. I wouldn't have filled out this sheet at all." Good luck from the Camosun in your field of destruction of evil in the world.

DENNIS LOW: A disappointed Miss Camosun entrant, Dennis' plans don't include working. Must have been a traumatic experience! Confucius (Dennis) say, "Pale ink is better than the most retentive memory."

CHERYL MCGAVIN: Cheryl is thinking about becoming a special education teacher. In her first week of grade 11, she was constantly getting lost. How convenient, Cherr!!

RICHARD MILLER: Richard may some day be seen in Spuzzum, B.C. (spell it? we haven't even heard of it!). His worst moment was eating a micro-waved keiser.

LORI NICHOLSON: Lori claims she will not return to Vic. High. Too bad, since after getting caught skipping out (worst moment) she always returned! Nicky plans to become a social worker.

STEVE PACKIEWICZ: Although Steve didn't enjoy getting caught skipping out he confessed to liking Vic. High. He says his plans are to forget about this place?!

SHERRI PYNN: Happily Sherri has had no bad moments at Vic High. She hopes to go to Camosun and become a practical nurse. Sherri has enjoyed sports and activities.

JIM REYNOLDS: "Jim-Bob" foresees a "fishy" future with his own factory. He bids Mr. Chan's finned flocks a fond final farewell. Have fun with your fishy friends, Jim!

CAROL ROTHWELL: Carol wants to finish school and get enough money to travel. Her worst moments have been writing exams. She also says, "Enjoy yourself, it's your last year."

MARC ST. PIERRE: Ah, the life of a vagabond! Marc plans to buy a van and travel (a rich vagabond). "Au revoir," he says in parting.

RHONDA THOMPSON: "Cuddles" ambition is to get a job. That certainly is an ambition, Rhonda! With a "Yahoo, let's boogie" and a "keep on truckin'" Rhonda departs from Vic. High.

CONNIE WHITE: Watch out for "Freckles"! She has a terrible habit of walking into things. Connie would like to take a shot at College after retiring from high school. Her advice: "If teachers cram you with weekend homework, COMPLAIN!"

TRACEY WILLIAMS: "Racey Tracey" plans to spend the summer in California; then go to university in Utah. The worst thing that happened to her at Vic. High was her Food's mark.

LINDA YEEND: Victoria will see the last of "Captain Zap" in the future. She found there was not enough paper in Victoria(?). Linda warns us to watch out for salesmen bearing elephants.

misplaced persons:

CARMEN MANTHORPE: Carmen recently arrived from Oak Bay Senior High. That's a real switch — usually we lose students to Oak Bay. We're glad you came, Carmen, whoever you are.

CHRIS OSECKI: Chris wasn't around long enough to fill out a questionnaire. Great way to escape our clutches, Chris, by dropping out early.

ED PILUK: Ed plans to be a technician or a game warden. Getting smacked on the knuckles was not a nice experience. Good luck, Ed and watch out for flying two by fours.

div. 6: Mr. Nesmith

KELLY BARTER: "Rockbottom's" ambition is to get married, have 15 kids or hijack a plane to Hawaii. Her dislikes were getting caught skipping out, the assemblies and school. Does school rate first, second or third?

RITA BLISS: "Ritz" plans to take each day as it comes. She wants to thank Mr. Johnston for "the greatest two years of acting". Her advice is to study hard and don't skip out.

STEPHEN BREER: "Mighty Mouse" wants to move away and get a job (in a cheese factory?). He didn't like standing around at lunch. Too bad he didn't think of sitting down!

BOB CALDWELL: "Ugly's" plans are to be an educated (?) bum and to go cruising in his Valiant. Great ambitions!! His worst moment was his first day at Vic. High.

SYLVIA CHARLES: After grad Sylvia plans to travel and become a typist dispatcher. Terrible moments for Sylvia include knowing when she failed tests. She exclaims, "Keep up the good ole Vic. High spirit!" It sure is "ole"!

JOHN CHU: Big John hopes to be seen on the sunny beaches of Europe, especially by brunettes, redheads, and blondes. To the latter he cautions: "Wow! Watch out!" Watch out for what, John?

DAVID COTTLE: David wants to be rid of his big 80 c.c. putt-putt he calls a trail-bike. Once he gets a bigger one, he'll whiz over to university and become another modern-day architect.

RHONDA DAVIES: We presume Rhonda has no future plans, no nicknames, no parting words, no words of advice and no worst moments. Another person for our apathy page!

ANNE DOMKE: Donk's plans are to travel and go to university to study French. The moment Anne saw all those stairs on the first day of school she knew that she would have to "travel". She says, "Enjoy yourself — it's your last year."

WILFORD FACEY: Wilford's worst moments were getting caught skipping out in grade 11. Obviously he learned his lesson and did not get caught in grade 12. He says, "Don't worry, graduation is mainly for your parents."

GLEN FRASER: Glen's plans are to become an auto mechanic, and his worst moments were cleaning up shop and sitting through boring classes. Fortunately he didn't say anything about boring questionnaires, so neither will we.

MAUREEN GOLDSMITH: When "Mo" graduates she wants "to take courses in hair-dressing and become a hairdresser". Her worst moment at Vic. High was falling off a chair in typing with a dress on. (What's the dress got to do with it?)

SUSAN HARRIS: Sue desires to travel and nurse others back to health. Her worst moment was failing English 10. At least we didn't have any trouble reading your questionnaire.

BRENT HOBSON: All we could learn from "Hobbie" was that he plans to learn how to weld and later get a job at Yarrows. He seemed to have had an allergy to our questionnaire. Was it the paper? the questions? — don't answer that!!

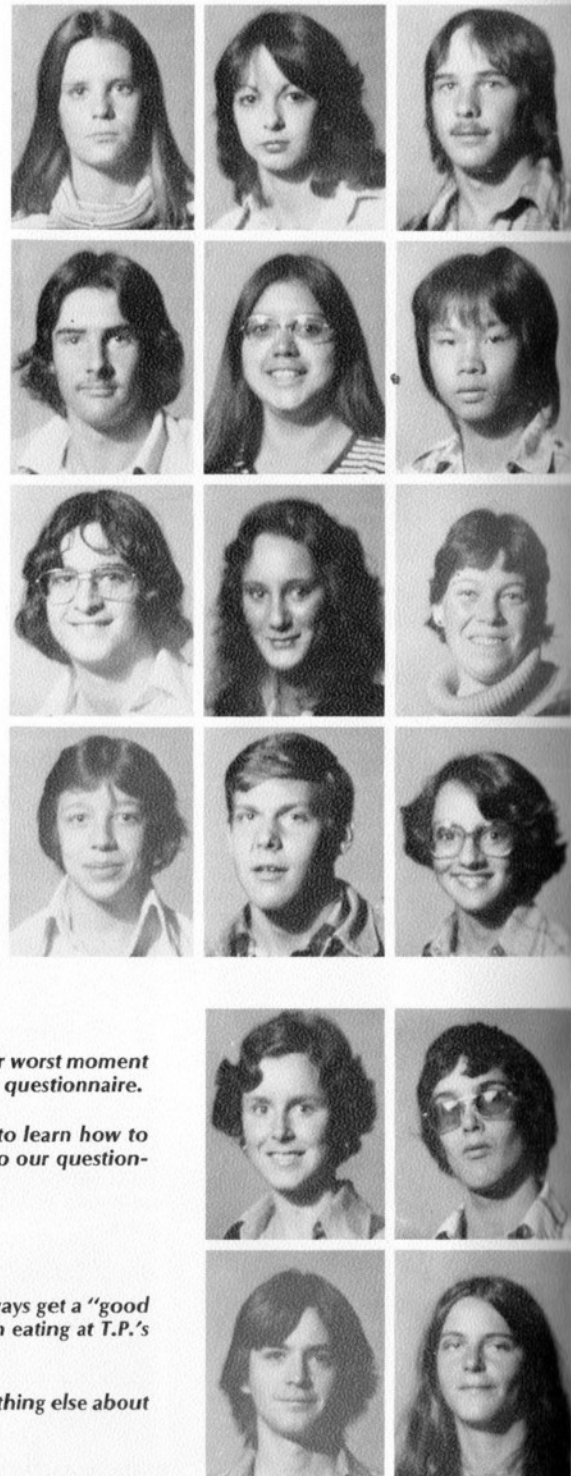

DAN HUGHES: Dan plans to be a lawnmower salesman because they always get a "good cut". (Haircut?) He feels that eating lunch in the cafeteria was worse than eating at T.P.'s house. Boy, that's bad!

MAUREEN JOHNSON: Maureen took typing. Unfortunately we know nothing else about her. Another anonymous student.

misplaced person:

LENA AMOS: Lena played on the "A" volleyball team this year, but she prefers to remain anonymous for reasons known only to herself.

LYALL SLATER: All we know about Lyall is that he had short hair in elementary school (wow!), drives a white car and wears high shoes. Sorry we can't say more, Lyall.

DENNIS LARGE: Dennis plans to go to university and study Biology and Math. He doesn't like to watch soccer games from the stands and agrees with the school motto "No reward without effort".

SANDY LEWIS: Sandy can't believe she survived the whole thing and plans to travel and go to U Vic. She wishes her friends "... all the happiness each one deserves".

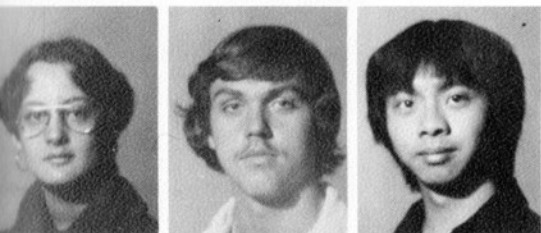

ANNA LUI: Touring around the Mediterranean is Anna's plan. Her final words are "no more getting up so early". "May you find the formula and have an everlasting life," are hopeful words for older students and teachers.

FRANCO MARCHELUZZO: Franco plans to do "something" in the field of photography. He warns, "don't take Geography" because he hates tests and essays. Beware of chocolate Brownies!

WALLY MCGOVERN: "Where's the party tonight?" is a question that Wally Gator, Teeth and Hands can be heard asking. His worst moment at Vic. High was waking up in the morning (especially after a party).

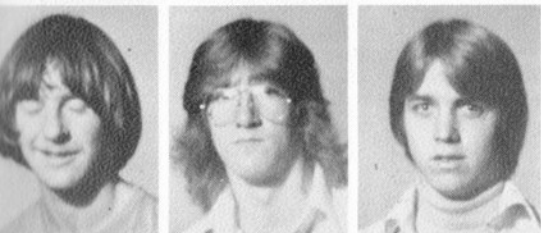

STEPHEN MIX: Stephen's only words to Vic. High are "Well, you tried Vic. High". Some how we get the feeling that Stephen thinks Vic. High is inadequate? Maybe life at university will improve.

LESLIE PAINTER: "I'm glad I went to Vic. High instead of Mt. Doug," says "Deet", and so are we, but what's this about falling flat on your back in the main hallway . . . ? Leslie wants to teach singing somewhere in the boonies.

HENRY PIORUN: Henry's worst moment at Vic. High was "it". For advice to next year's grads he quotes a phrase which is too unpolished to print. Better luck next time, Henry.

KEN QUAN: Ken will some day go into business on the moon, mining and exporting cheese to inter-stellar mouse trappers. Sounds promising, Ken! His list of titles were too numerous to print. Sorry, "your highness or equivalent".

ROBERT REYNOLDS: Robert enjoys playing La Crosse. He is definitely a Socials student. Apart from those two things we know absolutely nothing about him. (In other words, we're just guessing.)

KEN ROZON: Ken's worst moment was meeting K.M. His best moments were spent in dark corners and dead end hallways where he could be heard repeating, "I vant to trink yore blud!"

GREGG SEEAR: Gregg's worst moment was in Management, where he fell off his chair in front of 20 girls! 20 girls! What's so bad about that?! He plans to become an interior designer and raise a happy family.

GARY STAMFORD: After graduation, Gary plans to leave Victoria and pursue a career in technical theatre. His worst moments included a morning spent as a tree. As in "two's company, tree's a crowd?!"

DREE THOMPSON: Dree contacted the dreaded "questionnaire phobia" and had to quit school early. We hope it doesn't last forever.

MICHELLE VENSEL: Michelle is looking forward to her future as an R.N. Her words of wisdom are, "Don't let the spirit die, strengthen it and keep it moving." You're right, it sure does need some strengthening.

MARK WHITE: Mark wants to become a marine biologist, then he can "chew" out the makers of "Jaws". "Fish" doesn't like exams and warns next year's grads not to slack off.

FRED WONG: "Ferd" wants to get out of school and into something better. What could be better than school, Fred? He says, "Quit while you're ahead" to next year's grads.

STEVEN YEUNG: Look out California! Here comes "young Mr. Universe" in his new G-string. Steven's advice to next year's grads is "Think, then act. If not possible, just think."

div. 7: Mrs. Burgis

CATHY BARTON: "Albino" would like to be a rich secretary. She literally "ran" into big trouble when she bumped into the teacher whose class she had just skipped out of. Wise move, Cathy!

BOBBIE BRAND: Bobbie plans to be a secretary and never look at a school again. Her bad moments include trying to eat crackers quietly in the library and dropping a box of pins in the hall right after the final bell.

LINDA CONSTANTINEAU: Linda found it embarrassing to walk through the hallway wearing her Circus costume. In the future she hopes to write a book. Linda encourages everyone to keep up the school spirit and keep cheering.

JOANNE DHALIAN: Joanne likes to keep to herself. Very much to herself. She didn't hand in a questionnaire.

SHERRI DICKSON: In the future "Cher" would like to become a hair stylist. A "painful" memory of Vic. High was being pushed off cafeteria tables. She tells everyone that a smile can always lighten up someone's day.

NINA FROMM: We have no idea where "Fromm" is from. From the way you fill out questionnaires, it seems you know as little about yourself as we do.

SUSAN GREGORY: Hopefully in Susan's future lies a good job in typing. She commented on how hard it was to find her way around Vic. High as a new student. Sue would like to emphasize that a school year goes quickly and everyone should finish school.

SUE GUNN: Sue's pastimes are often spent with H.J. She has a powerful desire to remain anonymous. Despite all our efforts she failed to turn in a questionnaire.

TAMMY HANSEN: Tammy seems to be a shy sort of person. All we know about her is that she wants to work for a good looking lawyer. For strictly professional reasons we hope, Tammy!

DIANE HOLMES: "Homer" has high hopes of travelling and obtaining a good job. Diane's helpful hint to the school board is to install elevators to the fourth floor. She thinks everyone should smile when the going gets tough.

LESLIE HUNT: "Puff" plans to extend her education for one or two more years at Camosun College. During her school years Leslie dreaded having to wake up every morning at 7 a.m. Like many, she could easily have done without exams.

SHEILA JOHAL: Sheila kept in shape this year by making the famous four-floor trek on a regular basis. She would like to travel and get a good job. Who wouldn't? She advises the undergrads to keep up the school spirit.

LENA KUM: Getting out of school is at the top of Lena's list. She proudly admits that she had no bad moments at Vic. High. Hope the luck keeps up, Lena!

LINDA KUSCHNIR: Linda wants to graduate and get married. Catch that, guys? The only good things she admits about her education were grades one and two because she can't remember them.

RAMONA LACKNER: "T.A." enjoys skiing and would like to continue with this hobby in Austria. She hated walking through crowded halls as well as everything else that happened in school.

HOLLY LANE: "Bumb" desires to find a career and have a family. An embarrassing moment for her was forgetting to put her car in neutral and stalling it in the parking lot. Her words of wisdom for the future grads are, "God help you."

HELEN MAH: Helen's plans are to graduate and go to business school. Typing negative three words a minute was one of her worst moments at the school. In closing she would like to say, "Good-bye and S.T.B., Vic. High."

NINA MAH: Nina would like to get away to Europe and stay there for 3 to 4 months. She was another enthusiastic member of the staircase falling club. For reasons unknown to us, Nina wishes she had been born earlier.

DIANE McPHERSON: "Mickie" plans to be a secretary in some stuffy office. Her worst moments at Vic. High were losing valuables in her first months. She hopes that she will be able to look back on these years and laugh.

JANICE MILLAR: Janice plans a fun life of staying single and living it up. After finally getting through school she admits she enjoyed every part of school while she wasn't in it. Janice wisely concludes, "Ee-Sher"!

SHELLEY OLIVIER: Shelley was extremely disappointed when she did not receive all A+ grades in school. She encourages all of next year's grade twelves to try as hard as she did, and you should graduate.

SUMAN PALLAN: Suman is concentrating on getting a high paying job. She has been known to trip on the stairs and fall flat on her face. Suman tells us she enjoyed Vic. High and will miss everyone.

CORINNE RICKMAN: Corinne is going to continue going to cabarets and do a bit of travelling with Mr. Right. In G.B. Corinne has been accused of witchery by Mr. Harris. We all hope he was just kidding.

ERNESTINA SANTAROSSA: "Ernie" is planning to move to Montana some day. She wants to become a dental floss tycoon. "Ernie" says, "Watch out where the husky's go, don't you eat that yellow snow."

FRAN SCOTT: "Elf" plans to get a well paying job because she feels she deserves it. She didn't enjoy the dreaded Monday mornings; however she did enjoy the school and she hopes future grads will too.

KATHY SAMPLE: "Simple Simon" plans to travel through Canada in a van. Later she hopes to settle in California and become a millionaire. Kathy hopes to bump into her former classmates in some of Victoria's fine cabarets.

CONNIE SKINNER: Connie plans to become a secretary and type her way to fabulous wealth. Among her dislikes are Monday mornings and Friday afternoons. Connie is glad to have graduated and is happy to say good-bye to school.

VERA TANG: In the future Vera plans to work, although not too hard because she feels she got enough of that at Vic. High. She wishes the best of luck to all next year's teachers and students.

TINA TRIKERIOTIS: After graduation "T.T." wants to become a legal secretary, win the million, and get married, not necessarily in that order. Tina feels she was picked on by two particular teachers. We know the feeling, Tina.

TINIE VERMANING: In the near future Tinie would like to travel as far away from school as possible. She seems to have special powers, claiming she is able to fall upstairs. Tinie wishes a healthy good riddance to Vic. High and all of its students.

KAREN WALKER: "Wacky Walker" plans to get married, have lots of kids, and become a stenographer. Karen has been known to delay fire drills by falling down the entry stairs.

PATSY WARDROBE: When "Pansy" gets out of school she would like to be a transport truck driver. Her only bad experience was enrolling as a new student and not knowing anyone. Patsy says she will never forget school.

WENDY WINTER: "Wendy Wendy Wonderland" hopes to get a government job and then travel in her MG. She hates being teased about her boyfriend by Mrs. Fishwick. Wendy was glad to be a part of the first two years of Vic. High's second century.

div. 8: Mr. Ashwell

BOB ANDERSON: "Grant and Fernwood make a great place for burn outs and smoke shows," says Bob, who wants to own a "Vette" before he's 19. Bob hated grade 12 in general. What about in specific?

JAGTAR BASI: "Shaggy's" plans are to continue his education and become a millionaire. He desires to travel around the world. This is grade 12, Jag; time to come down from that cloud.

ROBERT BLUNDELL: We've been advised that "Full Races" worst moment was getting his knees dirty on a bridge in England. We know all about that Rob. Tch, Tch!

BRENDA CAMPBELL: Brenda is a cheerleader who is devoted to her school. She wants to go to Vancouver to become a "labatory technician" and then go to Europe. We hear those are in great demand in Europe!

SING CHEUNG: To be an electrician or a millionaire is what Sing desires. He has had too many moments to specify which is his worst. His words of wisdom are, "Be what you are and not what you're not." Sounds like a song, Sing.

LORI CHU: "Chu Baby's" resolution is to travel after grad and then become "Joe the Bartender". Her idea of fun is being "bugged" in Biology. She says, "Happy New Year to everyone." A little off, aren't you, Lori?

MATT COTTRELL: Upon leaving school Matt wants to become rich. He says that while at Vic. High his worst moments were, "coming, staying and leaving". Sounds like "parting is such sweet sorrow", Matt.

STAN DAVIS: "Shaky" wants to become an authority on etiquette. He hates Mondays and exam-daze. "Dougie the fishie" says, "see ya next year". We hope not!

LORI DONOVAN: Lori's future plans are to graduate from Vic. High and travel. She doesn't like school much and doesn't recommend typing to anyone. Lori's parting word is "no".

KELLY FANTHAM: Kelly's ambition is to graduate and throw an "all summer" party. She believes a day without a study is like a day without sunshine. Kelly's departing words are, "Good-bye Vic. High, I'm going to miss you!"

ROB FRASER: Rob's ambition is to own a "Iemizine". Pretty rare nowadays aren't they, Rob? He believes "live and let live" will guide next year's grade 12's.

BRIAN GOODRIDGE: Brian hopes to explore the slopes and curves of mountains around the world when he graduates. The only thing he'll remember about Vic. High is the soccer team. I wonder why?!

MARGARET HOGG: "The Walking Dictionary" wants to become a R.N., and her worst moments were getting blue slips and being late. When she leaves school she'll miss everything except homework.

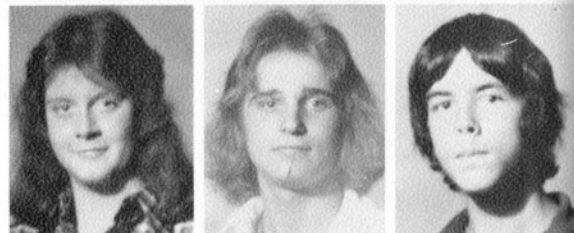

JAMIE HUNT: Jamie left school so she could concentrate on V.S. The Camosun class sincerely wishes you the best of luck with your future endeavors.

SHELLEY JOHNSON: "Seripco" declares that her future plans are to work for B.C. Forest Products and earn heaps of money so that she can take off to California. She hopes that next year's grads enjoy themselves as much as she did. Is that supposed to be funny Shelley?

RON LaROY: "Ron-Bo" can be heard saying, "Is this the face of a man who cares?" and, "You bug me!" Ron's future includes girls, money, girls, money . . . HAPPINESS!

NORMAN LIIMATTA: "Batta" had a great time at Vic. High and hopes to become a highly paid electronic engineer. Other plans include installing a V-8 in his Toyota. Losing out, balloon confiscators, and a non-understanding female gave Normie awful headaches.

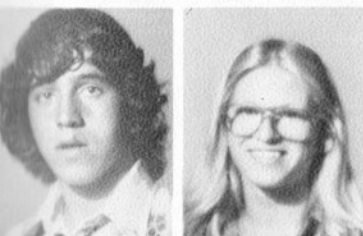

LINDA LUM: Linda plans to work, then travel to Hong Kong and Hawaii. She had fun attending school, but she felt silly when she walked into the wrong class. Her advice—"Listen to your teachers and life will taste better." (?)

DAVE MARCUSSEN: Dave hopes to earn a high position in sports. His final words as he exits Vic. High are, "Good-bye to the multitude of good-looking girls!" He still doesn't forgive T.S. for pushing him down four flights of stairs, though.

STEPHEN MCGREGOR: "Mac" claims he spent some of his worst moments at Vic. High curling with Mr. Baur. After he finishes school he anticipates becoming a pro football player. Stephen advises, "Close your eyes through grade twelve."

JOE MONIZ: "Moe" describes his worst moment at Vic High as losing the Colonist Cup in soccer. To all future grade 12's Joe advises, "Don't skip out too much!" Why not?

JOANNE NORGAARD: Jo plans to get filthy rich and move to England. She hates the cafeteria food, and says, "May the force be with you always, sometimes, half-the-time . . . well, good luck!"

GEORGIA PAPALOUKAS: Georgia's expectations are to travel to far-off lands and study archaeology. Her final farewell words are, "My face in the rain, I walk all alone, it's Sunday. Time is slow, I'm happy, that is all I know. Adieu."

JO-ANNE PODGORENKO: "Pogo's" plans are to be another "Get Christie Love". Having her bra strap broken and trying to keep it a secret was a bad experience. "Jo-Pog's" final words are, "I did it all for you Mom!" Sure you did!

VICTOR QUAN: "Mr. Quan's" plans include going to university for Biology. Victor's worst time will be the day P.V. manages to fit a 455 in an austin-mini. Words of wisdom from Victor — "Best of fortune to all fellow students and teachers!"

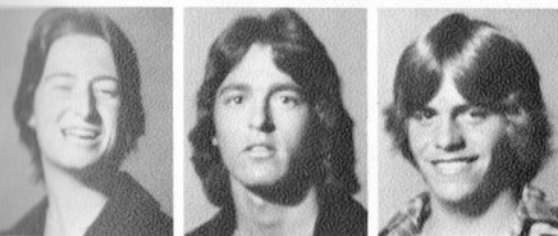

DINO RIBEIRO: Dino's plans are to bring back a beautiful blonde from California this summer and his worst moment was getting a parking ticket in front of the school. He can be heard saying, "Who wants to go drinking," or "See ya next year."

BROCK RUSSELL: "Tree's" words of wisdom to future grade 12's are not to fill out questionnaires. Brock has no plans except to laugh at this comment. It'll be a sad day when this comment becomes funny!

RON SHATFORD: "Headly" had a great time cruisin' in his Mustang and falling down the front stairs at Vic High! He looks forward to having a perfect time travelling and making money.

SHEILA SMEDLEY: "Buck" is scheming to some day escape from Victoria and possibly return to Nova Scotia. She hates filling out questionnaires and advises the grade 12's of next year, "Don't take any wooden nickels kid!"

SUSAN STOUT: "Susie" plans to go to university, enter the field of education and travel. Her worst moment—losing her shoes and falling up the stairs. Her last words are, "Good-bye, good luck and don't take Biology 12." Sounds familiar.

HARVEY THORAU: "Harv the Marv" plans to travel to the South Pacific, then go to U Vic to become a coach for the Oregon Ducks B.B. team!! His worst moment was waiting for an assembly when there wasn't one. Way to go, Harv!

PAUL VENTURIN: "Vench, the bottomless pit" wants to continue education at U Vic in Marine Biology. The Camosun class sincerely wishes you the best of luck, Paul. You'll need it.

ROBERT WHITE: To win a million and travel are Robert's future plans. Some bad moments to him were exams and boring assemblies. He leaves us with, "Good ride-dance, Vic. High."

JUNE WONG: June plans to travel through Europe as a volleyball star. She enjoyed her years at Vic. High and advises students to keep up the athletic spirit.

JAMES YOUNG: After graduating, James plans to become a doctor, get rich and enjoy life until death. His words of wisdom are, "Live life as yourself and for yourself, because no one else will." Well said James!

misplaced persons:

KATRINA BROGAN: Katrina flew the coop early this year. Good luck!

LORNE HATCH: Lorne left early this year. It sounds like an epidemic. This division is full of dropouts.

div. 9: Mr. Bryans

CAMERON ANDERSON: Cameron wants to move to California where there is no snow because he thinks it is "warm there" and for other reasons which he would not disclose. He is glad he is finally finished school.

JANICE BEASLEY: Janice's plans are to finish grade 12 and to travel. Her worst moment was dodging certain people in the halls. She says, "Have fun."

KATHY BOOTH: "Boothie's" plans are to go to Bible school and get married. Question: How can one get married to a school? Kathy's warning to future students is, "Don't take Chemistry unless you absolutely have to."

DAVID BROWN: Dave's worst moments at the school were his classes—all of them. His interests lie in the mechanic business. Dave's message to undergrads is, "You will regret it."

TOM CAMPBELL: Tom is going to "conduct" his future so that it leads to an electrical life. He was not "sparked" by the questionnaire and so did not fill it out. We hope you have a "light" existence, Tom!

SANDY CHOI: Sandy chose Hong Kong over Victoria and left early this school year. The Camosun class sends good wishes and a happy future to him. Lucky guy!

NORINE CHU: "Lyn's" ambition is not certain but she hints at becoming a professional wrestler. Her worst moments were cutting up a worm in Biology and changing during a black-out. In parting, she says, "Good-bye, good ol' Vic. High!"

RUSSELL COURT: Russell thinks some of the teachers at Vic. High are "fairy" nice. He plans to move to Columbia after he graduates which can't be too soon as far as he's concerned.

SUE DAVIS: "Villainess" wants to be an astronaut. (There's no one to cheer for on the moon, Sue!) She's all heart. She says that if we had to suffer through grade 12 so should everyone else.

JO-ANN DOUPE: Jo-Ann wants to be an R.N. (rabid Narwhal). Good luck Jo-Ann and remember, "Don't drink out of a water fountain with gum over the spout." She's full of profound advice!

STEPHANIE FARRINGTON: "None" wants to travel "wherever" and then eventually go to New York to study journalism. Her worst moment was putting her life on the line by losing Mr. J's keys. Her parting words are, "Liberty at Last."

GLYNNIS FREEMAN: Glynnis is another one of those students who has nothing to say to Vic. High but "au revoir, adios and good-bye". She regrets the first day she enrolled and as soon as she graduates she will leave forever.

MARTIN GOODWIN: Martin's future plans are to make lots of money and have a good time. The problem is, how? His worst moment was falling in the mud in front of half the school's population.

MARK HAWES: Many people could say a lot about Mark. Unfortunately we were unable to find these people.

ANDY HOLDING: Andy's "adventure" is going to begin in the medical field. He thinks Vic. High is a "fantastic" school, but who wouldn't when their worst moment was rushing to the bus to go on a field trip to Goldstream?

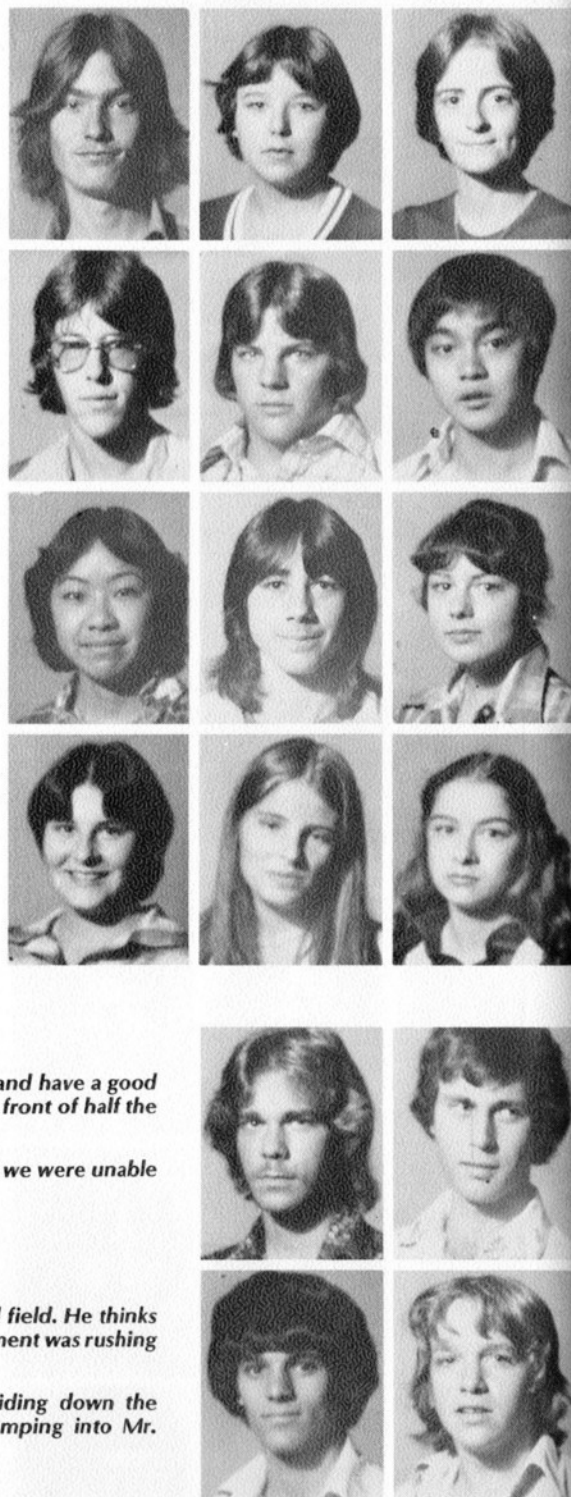

SCOTT HUTCHINSON: "Hutch" started his tour of the world by sliding down the banister into Mr. Lorimer! He says, "good-bye". (Before or after bumping into Mr. Lorimer, Scott?)

misplaced persons:

ROY NURSE: "El Roy" wants to be an agricultural engineer. His worst moment was losing the Cup to St. Michael's. He has a wise piece of advice — "Fail now, avoid the December rush."

PAUL RICHARD: Paul's plans are to leave Victoria and get a good steady job. He disliked filling out this questionnaire and says, "No" "No" "No".

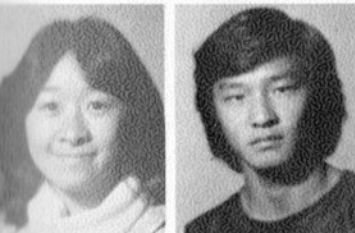

KENT VICKERY: "none redundant" feels that students should take better care of their school. (No sticking oranges on nails on the wall.) To next year's grade 12's Kent says, "None at all."

COLIN JONES: "Jimmy Page" says Colin shows potential. Sure he does Colin! Dump's worst moments were cartooning for the Time Piece. His words of wisdom are, "D.B.F.K. as much as possible, if not more." Dump it, Dump!

LEN LAYCOCK: Out of all the grads this year Leo is the only student who wants to become "weathy" and rule the world. We take it Len doesn't like teachers or psychiatrists.

BRENDA LIM: "Beanie" has been spotted sitting on tacks and listening to ice cubes. Her ambition is not to be late for her wedding or funeral. Brenda's parting word is, "finally". Finally what?

VIC LUM: Vic's plans are to become an automotive mechanic and own a Trans Am. His worst moment was having to clean up in auto shop. Final words are, "I will really miss you Auto J2!"

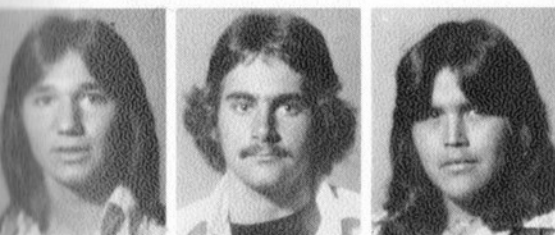

ROGER MARK: Roger is one of those people who comes and goes and is never seen. We'll get you next time, Roger, or the next . . . or the next.

JIM MILLSON: "You can't have bread and loaf," says Jim who wishes to become a carpenter. Have you ever considered being a baker, "Muscles"? Jim thinks cafeteria food is "crumby".

DARLENE MOORE: "The Banana Kid" says her future plans are to travel to many different parts of the world. Later she hopes to settle down and get a good job. Don't eat too many rotten bananas!

SUSAN PARRISH: Upon graduating Susan wants to study a language at Camosun and become a stewardess. Her worst moment was finding out she couldn't graduate this year.

TONY PONEZELNIK: Tony plans to climb trees on Vic. High that are growing. His bad moments are not being able to wear Johnny Miller slacks. He says that he and David Niven have the same shoe size and, "Does anyone have cat handcuffs?" We do.

BOB RADWAY: Bob hopes to make a little money playing guitar in local bands. His worst moment was meeting M.B. Bob's final words are, "Is it really worth it going to school for 12 years just to have a big party at the end?"

ESTHER SHAUGHNESSY: Esther left school early to go to Alert Bay for reasons which are a complete mystery to us. Whoever you are, Good luck!

DAN SMETHURST: Dan hopes to be an electronic "technitian" for B.C. Tel, specializing in connections. Farewell words are, "good-bye" and "good luck". Says Dan, "Try and keep the spirit up." Rah! Rah!

AL SUTHERLAND: Al hopes to find a well-paying job doing nothing. Try the government, Al. He claims he has had no bad moments.

JOHN TOWNSEND: John disappeared into the shops this year. He believes in keeping a low profile. Maybe someone over in Fairey Tech. knows who he is?!

TONY WICK: An informant tells us that Tony wants to be a disc jockey. Tony is rarely at school. We've heard he spends most of his time in his car.

MAY WONG: May is a person of few words; she refuses to discuss her future plans and her worst moment was not having a desk in home room. Life is pretty good, eh?

JANICE YOUNG: When "Tweety" graduates she wants to become an opthalmal technician. Her worst moment was when the elastic band in her mouth shot across the classroom. Elastic bands should be banned. They're lethal weapons!

div. 10: Mr. Camp

STEVE BEDFORD: Steve's future plans are to cruise around the school in a 1980 Trans Am. Words of wisdom are, "Try to get into Mr. Blasner's classes, he doesn't take attendance."

MIKE BOOTHROYD: "Hamburger helper" wants to travel around the world and pick up chicks in Paris, Italy. . . H.H. didn't like morning or afternoon classes and his final words are "party time?!" Ah, sure thing Mikey.

GORDON BRUCE: "Jack the ripper" wants to become a household detergent, or a neutron particle with a political sphere of influence in Iceland. We don't know what it means Gord but have a good time doing it. Having his name read backwards was a tragedy, not a worst moment.

GLENN CHOW: "Computer hogs" ambition for the future is to become a billionaire and rule the world with his monetary influences. His worst moment was when the computer terminals became inoperative. Our condolences go to the computer!

MURRAY CLARKE: "Mur's" future plans are to be a pro football player, or possibly "the great healer". (Stick to the healing Mur!) Some of his bad moments at the school were knowing K.W., and being a member of the cabinet with L.B. Lots of luck, Murray.

PETER DAWSON: Pete's great plan is to do as little as possible. (Sounds like he plans to keep busy!) Some bad moments for Pete at Vic. High were from September '76 to June '78. His wise words for next year's grads are, "become dropouts".

MICHELL DROVER: Michell's going to spend a few years doing what she's tried to avoid for 12 years — think about the future. We sincerely hope she finds herself because according to her questionnaire she can't find much else.

KATHY FECHTER: Kathy can be found looking for G.O., fighting with G.O., or talking to G.O. One question: Who is G.O.? Kathy plans to take courses in physiotherapy next year. (What about G.O.?)

JAY FONTAINE: Jay plans to become an electronics technician. His profession started a little early when he got caught in heavy winds and rain going to the shops. It just ruined his hairdo!

PERRY FREISINGER: Perry hasn't got any future plans, but his worst moments have been attending a school which he hates. Evidently Perry hasn't quit while he's still ahead.

INGRID GRAAFEN: "Ink" would like to finish her education as soon as possible. She hints that she didn't enjoy filling out the questionnaire. "Gitte" advises other students to keep smiling in Grade 12.

ED HAWKINS: For next year's grade 12's Ed quotes a favorite phrase: "Grade 12 is easy; I know I'll pass, but new grade 12's can kiss my %€$!!" You'd better hope grade 12's not blown or that %€$ you kiss may be your own!

SHIRLEY-LEE HORNER: Shirley-Lee wants to become a professional singer, commercial artist or a truck driver. She says, "Without a friend there is no love" and "If you have a dream look in the mirror and follow it, and make your dream come true."

MARY HOWARD: Mary's problem is remembering who she used to know, and who she knows. Mary's future plans are to remember who she knows and who she used to know. That's quite a problem, Mary.

TERRIE HUTTON: Terrie's plans are to travel around the world or go to university. She was known for falling flat out on first base during a softball game. Words of wisdom from "Beanpole" are, "Make sure you have a good year!"

JASON JACOB: "J.J." is going to work on the mainland. He was thoroughly disgusted (and humiliated) when he was called down to the office over the P.A. for nothing. Jason is glad that school is finally finished.

MANDIP KANG: After graduating, Mandip hopes to attend U Vic to study medicine. The only bad moment he could think of was a pass in Biology. (Hard to satisfy?) Mandip predicts next year will be the most successful year of all.

BARB LUTZ: Future plans for Barb are to survive white elephants in her life!! Some bad moments were falling down the front steps and losing her clogs. "Thank God it's over," are Barb's final words.

SANDY MARWICK: In the future Sandy hopes to work with children. Exam time is bad for "Sam". (That's familiar.) She wishes luv and luck to all next year.

MIKE McCLIMON: Mike only spends half the day at school. We assume he needs the rest of the day to recuperate from his half day activities . . . whatever they are!

CHRISTINE McINNES: "All things must come to an end, it just depends when and how." Christine plans to get a good job, make money and travel — in any order.

ROB MORRIS: "Chicken Train" plans to drive a truck for Shell Canada. Rob's worst moment was finding watery hot chocolate and tea bugs. (?) Rob says "hang tough" to all future grade 12's.

TIM O'CONNOR: Tim expresses his hopes that Vic. High's cafeteria will be turned into a pub at lunch next year. He wants to warn next year's grade 12's about respecting the faculty!

DOUG PASSMORE: "Squirrel" wants to be a disc jockey. We all loved him when he played Robin Hood with the calamity players. He says, "I guess I'll just stick an egg in my shoe and beat it."

PEGGY PORISKY: "Pegs" has no definite plans for the future, as she says, "que sera, sera". Her worst moments include homework and blocks A to G. It's a good thing she enjoys lunch.

ROB RAINSFORD: "Sittler's" worst moment at Vic. High was being matched up with a guy in computer dating. (Have you been hiding something, Rob?) Future hopes are to travel to New Zealand and become a forester.

WES RICHARDSON: Wes hopes to play the guitar for B.C.F.P. to keep the workers amused. He feels another year would kill him. The feeling is mutual.

RAYMONDE SAKAILY: Raye plans to attend university and take Biology or Recreation teaching. She would also enjoy travelling, especially to Ottawa. (Checking up on the government?) Raymonde advises next year's grads not to skip out because you'll just double your homework.

SHARON SANDERS: "Colonel Sanders" says that she plans to graduate and then continue her education and be an historian. Beware future grade 12's. Sharon says that she will be here again next year.

VINCE SHAUGHNESSY: Vince has left us for greener pastures; the ones where J.H. walks.

DARRYL SMITH: "Doorknob" wandered helplessly around on his first day at Vic. High but it must have been an enlightening experience since he wants to return as a teacher after travelling around the world. "Keep on Truckin', Darryl."

RORY SUTTER: "Blue's" future plans are to figure out what he is going to do. Rory didn't enjoy being struck on the head with a piece of wood by Mr. Paone. Wonder how the wood felt?

KRISTIE WICKENS: Kristie has pulled some strange stunts including mistakenly walking into the boys' change room, and being pinched by a teacher on the derriere! She wants to become a hairdresser and work at a unisex salon.

PAT WONG: Look out China! Pat plans to play rugby for Red China's communist team and hopes to win the next Miss Camosun Contest. To next year's grade 12's Pat says, "no comment".

div. 11: Miss Westman

TERRY ADAMS: "Squeak" has his heart set on becoming a pitcher on the "Cincinnati Reds". He feels "the only good thing about school was volleyball". Terry's words of wisdom are, "See ya next year." That's not too terribly wise, Terry!

DAVID ANDERSON: "Pot face" is apparently bored with his English and Socials classes, but he really enjoys selling Circus hats (even after Dec. 2). I guess we should take our hats off to that man (or put one on).

DOUG BEECH: Doug wants to get into the Forest Service. His worst moments are Registration and 8:45 homeroom buzzers. "If you can't stop don't start."

MARIA BOTELHO: "Non" aspires to become a fashion model and have a couple of children. She trips while walking up stairs and can be found in men's washrooms. Maria would like next year's grads to have more school spirit.

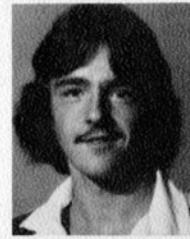

LAURIE BUNCH: After indulging in five years of university or business college "Bob" plans to head into an exciting career for the government (stamp licking?). You'd probably manage to swindle $7.00 an hour for that one, heh?!!

PAT CARLOW: "Shorty's" going to get married to a "wonderful fiancée", then work in a "hobby shop". From Hans Christian Anderson, Pat? "Short stop" despises doing gross things to living organisms in Biology. Spare us the details.

JOHN CHOW: John's future plans are to get married and open his own business, hopefully to get filthy rich! Parting words from John are, "so long" and his word of wisdom is, "PASS!"

WENDY CLERMONT: Shorty's witty remark to the question; "Do you have any final parting words?" was, "Words parting final any have you do". All we have to say to that is, "Dancing Scottish your in luck good!"

DARCY COX: Darcy wants to get a good paying job. He hates getting up early each morning. A few words of advice, Darcy—get a night job!

MIKE deGOEDE: "Horse" is aiming for a life of carpentry and rugby. Since he likes to look on the bright side of life we've decided to mention his best moments . . . great accomplishments in rugby and soccer; two sports that Mike gets a real "kick" out of.

BERNEY DUTTS: "Bernard" didn't exactly "enjoy" attending class he informs us. Some day he hopes to be a cabinet maker. "Bernadette" enjoys the friendship of fellow students and encourages next year's grads to push it through.

KEITH FERGUSON: "Ferg" plans to own the fastest boat on the water. His parting words are, "I've paid my debt to society and now I'm a free man". Some words of wisdom are, "Take it easy and maybe you'll get a year and one-half for good behavior."

RAY FREITAG: A hard working career of getting rich and living it up is planned by "Tree". Ray advises next year's grads to "quit while they're ahead" but wishes them luck, anyway.

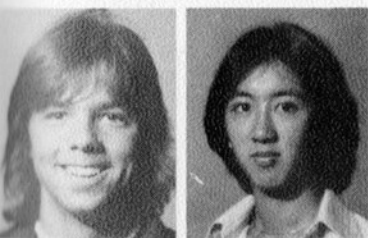

CHERYL GRANT: Cheryl is another one of our hopeful travellers of the future. She was fortunate in falling down the stairs this year. Sounds like fun, Cheryl! Speaking of fun, she wishes that all the undergrads have plenty of it next year.

LISA HAYTON: "Himie's" worst moment was being sick through V.B.'s B.C.'s (Mr. Chan's Biology classes?). "Owwa" feels she is one of the last of a great gang. Self-appreciation is good for the soul!

SUSAN HORVATH: Susan was a half-day student because she completed courses during the summer. Here's one student who is really industrious. Good luck to "a diligent and resourceful student."

MURRAY JACOBS: Murray hopes to work for a few years after graduation and attend U Vic. He hopes to have a History 12 class where Mr. Lund doesn't say "Bull Durum" at least 3 times. Murray wishes good luck to all next year.

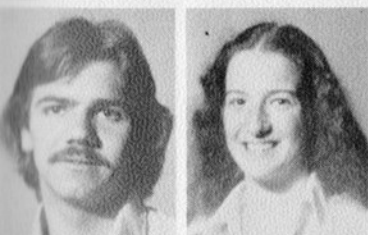

PETER KAZMIRUK: "Kaz" is "undecided" about his future plans as of yet. He would like to say, "good ridens" to next year's grade 12's.

ANNE LEE: Anne wants to live on a private tropical island for reasons yet unknown. "Don't worry", she advises, "things could be worse." Could they, Anne?!

BILL LYNN: It took Bill a long time to get specific but he's decided to become either an astronomer, geneticist, world dictator, malevolent messiah, loonic, or a septic tank cleaner. Part time only, of course.

GEORGE MATTHEWS: "Field Marshall" plans a hard-working career of partying until he drops dead. Attending school and "being straight" are on his list of dislikes. Sounds like one of our more ambitious students.

RUSS MORRISON: Upon graduating Russ wishes to become either a Thesbian or the third Hardy boy. We're sure he will achieve his goal. His worst moments involve S.F., to whom he says, "raspberry".

COLLEEN O'DONNELL: "Shweetie-pie's" ambition is to become a woodpecker. She made an interesting mess out of her "blah" questionnaire. Colleen's wisest words are, "HOWUMBA GERUMPHSHKK!!" Take that Vic. High!

RUSSELL PORISKY: "Seymour" is going to live a careless life after leaving Vic. High forever. He was turned against school "when the Stunt Teddy Bear died".

KEN RAMSAY: "Hec's" future includes becoming a heavy equipment operator and a professional arsonist. Ken hates school. Words of wisdom are, "I'm going to burn it down!" Good luck, it's brick!

TAMMI ROBERTS: "Wammy" gets her kicks by driving trucks onto sidewalks—that ought to curb her desires. Hopes for a big house, sporty cars, and her safe driver's rebate from ICBC.

ANNE SANSOME: Anne is well known in the Camosun class for misplacing vital grad questionnaires and not being around when she's needed. If you look hard, you'll find her in the hallways.

KATE SHAW: "Babe's" future plans are to sneak across Canada and "spend money, not make it". Her worst moments were having to attend classes. She holds memories which are, "beautiful and yet, so painful to remember".

ROBIN SMITH: "Fatso" is proud of her recordbreaking soup-bowl-breaking in the cafeteria. She hopes to leave Victoria some day and in doing so she says, "good bye".

ROBERT SWINDELLS: "Swinger" wants to be a mechanic and fix J.W.'s car so it blows up. He tells us he's going to commit suicide at the age of 100 by riding in it again. Rob hopes next year's students will do better than he did.

ROBERTA TURNBULL: "Bert" wants to work with mentally retarded children when she is out of school. Now if she could only remember how to climb out of that straight jacket.

DARLENE WALKER: When "Waddles" graduates she wants to become a Salvation Army officer. Darlene despised attending Vic. High as well as running in P.E. She admits that "It was fun while it lasted but I'm glad it's over."

TERRY WICKETT: "Farmer" has decided that he is through with school and he is going to start relaxing by being a gas station gas pumper. We all envy you, Terry. His word of wisdom is, "me"?!

YVETTE WONG: Yvette plans to "live" in the future. Good idea there! Being an intelligent person she advises next year's grade 12's to "use you knowledge!!" Right, Yvette!!!!

misplaced persons:

KATHY JARDINE: Kathy hated her first and second day at school. Question: What happened on the third day that was so enjoyable??? Planning to graduate, go to college and travel, she leaves us with these monumental words—"Good bye".

div. 12: Mr. Kreiser

JOHN ARMSTRONG: "Strongarm" plans to be an auto mechanic or a heavy duty one. His bad moments are the voluntary assemblies. He says, "Switch schools while you still can."

RONDA BENDALL: Ronda's future plans are to be one of Ted Nugent's tigers or to be a cloud in Bad Company's Burning Sky. She hated hearing about the CKDA sock hops. Ronda says "Yahoo!" Yahoo to you too, Ronda!

DAVE BOUDEWYN: "Flipper" plans to be a heavy duty mechanic and get rich. His worst moments at this school have been tests. His words of wisdom for next year's grads are, "don't call Mr. Mactavish 'short'".

ART BURLEY: Joe Burley's future plans are to do what he wants when he wants and where he wants to do it. That's fine "Joey" as long as you're not arrested.

MIKE CARLYLE: "Milk Toast" plans to do some travelling after graduation. He says his worst moments at Vic. High were receiving his nickname and having D.P.'s locker beside his.

BILL CLIFF: Bill's worst moment was when he was called mental midget in Physics. His words of wisdom for next year's grads are, "If you're tired of working, cut your legs off and bum around." Real cute, Bill!

TERRY COX: "Nails" plans a career in law, or journalism. You can find her crawling on the third floor. Sighing, she says, "I've escaped the beast!"

BOB DESCOTEAU: "Crash" hopes to own B.C.'s fastest car. (Will you settle for a go-kart, Bob?) Bob's advice to next year's grads is . . . "Demand a stomach pump for the cafeteria."

SHIRLEY DUNN: As soon as she graduates Shirley is going to catch the first rocket to Pluto where her hair style will be in vogue and nobody will mind if she sneezes too loudly. Her advice to next year's grads — "Don't sneeze"!

JOHN FRIAS: "Clipper" plans to "live fast, drive fast, play fast and in the end, die fast." In his years at Vic. High he found it hard to look but not touch. (Touch what, John?) His final words of advice are, "don't eat yellow snow".

JENNIFER GREENWOOD: Jennifer plans to become a tour guide in Europe or Australia. Jennifer hated dissecting a fetal pig in Biology. One problem, Jennifer — when the questionnaires were filled out the Biology classes hadn't done their fetal pigs yet!

PATTI HEALEY: "Pippi" wants to become an airline stewardess and travel. Patti is definitely one of our quiet types — she didn't like having to speak in front of her class. Famous last words are, "good luck!"

DONNA HOUSSIN: When "Dusty" graduates she wants to move to Surrey and train to become an R.N. Her worst moments at Vic. High were Monday mornings and tests. Final words are "I hope Parliament is a lot better next year. Hang in there!"

TANNIE JACOX: Tannie intends to work with children. Her best moment at Vic. High was the circus of '77 and going crazy trying to set up a poster. Tannie says "get involved and carry on the school spirit." And on . . . and on.

JAYE KERR: "Scruntdance Kid" plans to do some travelling and some work (with his girlfriend?). His worst moments were English 11 and failing Chemistry. Final words: "Grad better not be dry!"

DAVE ROBERTS: Dave plans to travel and become a cartoonist after grad. He regrets coming to Vic. High this year and parts with this advice to everyone: "Don't come."

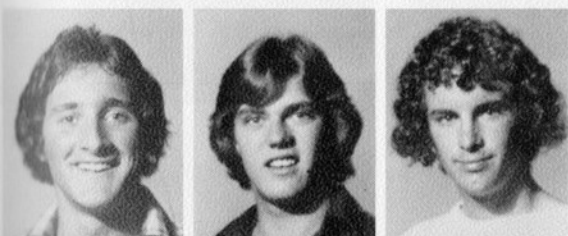

LISA LEE: Lisa helped us a great deal this year by donating information about J.M. and M.C. She hopes to go to U Vic next year and leaves this knowledge to future students: "If in doubt always ask, it's the only way to solve the problem."

DONNA MacARTHUR: Donna's worst moment at Vic. High was slipping on an orange peel in the cafeteria at lunch hour. In the future Donna is going to travel to Europe and study Psychology at university.

WAYNE MATTHEWS: To take a long vacation and then join the army are Wayne's plans. He hated coming to school and rashly leaves us with the words, "Good Buy". Does that mean you thought school was really "worth it", Wayne?

VEDA MOSSMAN: Smiley's future plans are to become a registered nurse. Veda was playing hockey with a microscope disc and got caught. To that she says "Amen" and "smile, but always feel a smile". Amen to you too, Veda.

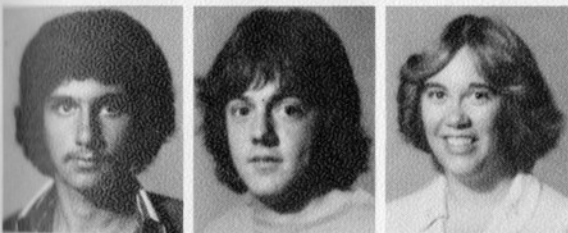

GARY O'DONNELL: "Suc" "served" this year as Prime Minister. As for future plans he is going to go to Nova Scotia and become a wealthy bachelor. His greatest ambition is to have everyone say something . . . or try to keep everyone from falling asleep?

DARRELL PATTERSON: "D's" just gonna sit back and take life as it comes. His worst moment was falling asleep in Political Studies. Don't cry "D" it happens to the best of us.

DEAN POTTER: "Spoon" wants to get a job playing baseball. "Dino" hated early practices. "Bird's" only words of wisdom for the entire year are "Keep up the School Spirit"!

RAJ RANDHAWA: Sambo's plans are to travel and own a hot car. Raj hated grade 11, Block B. How did you feel about Grade 12, Block B?

GLEN SATTERFIELD: Sass plans to take up drafting and work a while, then travel. Don't give them too much sass, Sass.

SUSAN SHAW: "Dudley" hopes to go back to England for good. Susan's problem was putting her books in a desk with no bottom. Did the books fall out?

ALLAN SNEDDEN: "Shmedly" wants to get rich fast. He had no parting words and no words of wisdom. He didn't have any worst moments either. Good luck, Shmed, you're going to go far.

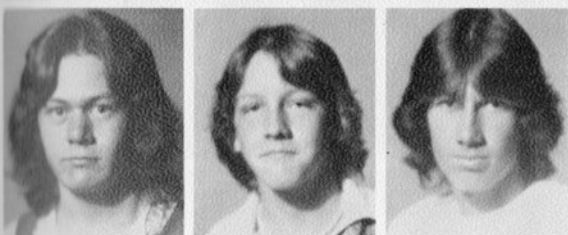

MARIA SZAUER: "Mar" plans to open her own wild hair styling shop. Her school activities include throwing undergrads down stairways. (Great sport) Maria asks, "When are they gonna put elevators in this place?"

LORA TUTHILL: "Tuts" wants to graduate from Grade 12 and take childcare courses at Camosun or U Vic, then work at a day care center. She found it a challenge trying to make it through grade 12 without D.S.

DAVE WALSH: Dave's future plans are to survive until next weekend. His worst moment was arriving at Vic. High. "Don't vote Socred," says Dave to all those students who are lucky enough to be able to vote.

JOHN WICKSTROM: John aspires to become a millionaire, live in a lavish penthouse and follow in Hugh Hefner's footsteps. His worst moments are not printable. "Ace" is still asking himself . . . "What is school?"

BILL WOOD: Billy wants to grow up and race Chevy's. Turtle didn't like being yelled at by teachers this year, or last year. Slow poke says to next year's grads . . . "skip out, 'cause you never get caught."

misplaced persons:

LAWRENCE CHOW: Lawrence plans to graduate and become a mechanic. Math classes were a bore according to Lawrence. His parting words are "Don't trust me."

ROB McINTYRE: Rob couldn't decide whether he wanted a job that makes a lot of money or to work on his car for the rest of his life. "Big Mac" didn't enjoy filling out questionnaires but we managed to persuade him.

div. 13: Mr. Chan

DANNY ASHDOWN: Danny plans to become a drag strip racer. It sounds like he would much prefer driving to attending school. His very wise advice to the undergrads is to quit while you're ahead.

NEIL BENNETT: "Dudley" is one of our ambitious students, planning an earnest career of thievery in order to support himself. The part he disliked about school was pretty well everything. S.D. gives Neil this advice: "Don't chew with your mouth open."

IRIS BOURNE: Iris regrets coming to school at Vic. High, but then she regrets coming to school at all. She plans to get away from Victoria as soon as possible and advises others to quit while they're ahead!

JOHN BURNS: "Leprechaun" has been seen around in a number of embarrassing costumes — namely a dress and a viking costume. John says, "I'd like to say I had fun, but I cannot tell a lie."

KAREN CAWKER: "K.C." plans on becoming a reporter. Her experience as Camosun business manager will be of great benefit in this field. In any case, she should have lots of good "Times" in whatever she does.

MANN CHOW: "Chow Mein's" future plans are to find a high paying job after he finishes college. His worst moment was worrying if he had enough courses to graduate. As he searches for a career, he admits that school is worth the effort.

CHERYL COLES: After grad, "Springs" wants to be a ski instructor. Cheryl has a certain someone in mind for marriage, and has visions of three little children. Boy, girl, and then what?

ROSA CRAVEIRO: "Rosie" says her worst moment at Vic. High was missing a Camosun assembly. After graduation she hopes to travel and attend university. Rosa wishes luck to all of next year's grads.

RUSSELL DEWHURST: "Limey" refused to comment on his future on the grounds that it may incriminate him. Russ says that he enjoyed every minute he was in school except for Monday through Friday.

TOM DUNN: Tom hasn't decided what to do with his future. One of those last minute people, eh Tom? His major dislike at Vic. High was getting up in the mornings. Haven't we heard that somewhere before?

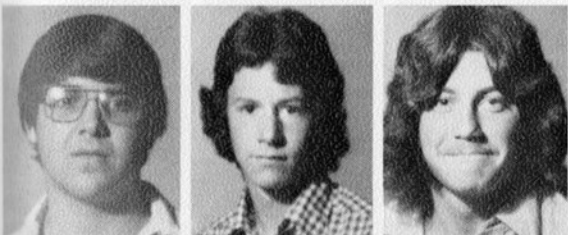

BRENT FYFE: The "Lifesaver Kid" plans to be a cop or a Biology teacher. (Good luck!) Brent dislikes report cards and a biology teacher. Due to the subject matter of his parting words, we weren't able to print them. Sorry Brent!

LINDA GREENWOOD: Linda plans to travel and have fun. Her most embarrassing moment was being yelled at for being late and then being late again the next day. Linda enjoyed working in the cafeteria.

REG HARPER: It seems Reg was only here for 2 weeks at the beginning of the year, but he made a good "space filler" so we used his picture anyway. Thanks Reg.

JOANNE HENNEKES: "Joe" plans to attend U Vic. She enjoys sports, especially basketball which she played a lot at Vic. High. Joanne encourages the undergrads to have loads of fun next year in grade 12.

DOUG HOWARD: Some day Doug hopes to be a chef in his own restaurant. He humbly admits that he is quite often referred to as "God". Our question is who or what refers to you as "God"?

ROB HOWDEN: The only person who claims he knew Rob is A.B. who says that Rob is working for his dad installing intercoms. He plans to go to Alberta this summer.

JOHN JAMES: "JJ" is leaving Vic. High this year with fond memories of selling sports lottery tickets, first block classes, and square dancing in CR. After 12 years of sacrificing his time, he plans to get a good job and have a good life.

MARGARET LEE: Margaret expressed her anger with us for not letting her leave homeroom until she finished her questionnaire. Although she was not long on words, we know her as a very nice person, even if she is a little short.

BRIAN LISTER: Brian hopes to get a university degree. He is another person who didn't have much to tell us except that none of his Vic. High moments were bad moments.

ADELE MacGREGOR: Adele's future plans are to move to California. She will remember the school well for bringing she and Pete together. Unfortunately it seems Adele was too busy with Pete to spend time on questionnaires.

JAN McKINNON: "Jano" is going to live in a mountain-encircled city with lots of trees. She was pleasantly surprised when Mr. N. paid off his bet with a kiss. That must have been some bet!

DAVID MYLREA: "Shorty's" ambition in life is to become an artist. David wisely urges next year's grads to enjoy every minute at Vic. High because time travels fast when you're having fun.

CAROL ROBINSON: Carol's future plans are to become more coordinated. Her bad moments were falling down the stairs and knocking over cafeteria tables. Her warning to next year's grade 12's is to watch out for the tricky tables and chairs.

RAY RODRIGUEZ: Some day "Snow" plans to move out of Victoria in search of a warmer climate. Like most people, Ray says he dreads Monday mornings. His wise words to undergrads: "Stay out of trouble, and school."

GINA SHPIRUK: Gina plans to live in Bolivia and open a cocoa plantation. Her unprintable nickname was one of her major dislikes. Gina admits that "the Nose nose" and advises the undergrads to keep it clean.

KATHLEEN SO: Kathleen plans to go to university and hopes to become a kindergarten or elementary school teacher. She informs us that there is nothing she enjoyed less than making speeches in Civilization class.

KATHY WARDELL: "The Warden" can be heard saying "Isn't it Darling?"! Her plans are to join the navy and work in communications. Among her worst moments were D.M. and curling bonspiels. Hope you had some good moments too, Kathy.

misplaced persons:

GERRY FLETCHER: Gerry quit school probably because he wanted to further his career in football. That doesn't help us much, Gerry, you didn't fill in a questionnaire.

BRENT MAY: Brent's future ambitions seem to lie somewhere in a field where he can work hard and get rich. The only problem with Vic. High is he has to get up in the morning. Brent advises next year's grads to have fun.

div. 14: Mr. Chell

DAVE ASHWELL: Dave was disappointed in losing the Colonist Cup this year, but says, "Thanks guys, it's a good school and the people make it." He plans to tour B.C. putting on the play "Godspell" next year.

SUSAN BRADEN: Susan plans to become rich and famous after graduating by getting a job as a ticket agent at an airline. Getting caught skipping out, Sue advises, "Whatever you do, don't skip out, . . ." A word from the wise?

JOHN BURNS: "Lucky Pierre" hopes to obtain the coveted title of "World's Greatest Lover" as well as being filthy rich and famous. Seriously though, "Fuzz Face" plans to be an architect. An architect and a great lover — that's quite a combination!

DAVE CHAN: Dave hates school and wants to work full time, anywhere (any offers?), then travel to Europe. He presently works at Fairway. Great future in that, Dave.

MARLA CHOW: "Mar" hopes to go to U.B.C. Being very hungry she dropped a quarter into her soup making one and a quarter bowls. She says, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. If you don't get it by the third time, forget it!"

KATHY COLLINGS: How did you manage to trip and fall over one of the guys while running on the balcony, Kathy? Well, only you (and the guy!) know. Kathy wants to attend college and go into interior design.

LORRAINE CRAWFORD: Lorraine hopes to work and go to Spain with G.B. Her worst moments were the teachers. The rest of the sheet must have been a secret. Maybe G.B. knows?

HARJ DHAMRAIT: "Harfi", who is a baker, found one of his worst moments was failing foods! He thinks Vic. High is getting a lot of small grade 11's and advises them to "grow a few inches".

GREG EATON: Greg didn't say much, but he did make plans to graduate (!) and thought Grade 12 and seeing a counsellor were his worst moments. Just being mysterious, eh?

MARK FISHER: Mark believes things look better from "bottoms up", which is why he plans to become a ski or scuba instructor! Certain teachers are his pet peeve, but he still wishes students to enjoy their final year.

KELLY GALBRAITH: "Rocky" wants to become a dentist, get married, and have three kids (free dental care!). She thinks Vic. High is "the best", but her views on the cafeteria aren't quite the same.

BRIAN GUY: "Boy Wonder" plans to make a Marantz belt that won't melt. Wonderful, Brian! Talking with stereo cowboys were his worst moments at Vic. High. In parting he says, "Marantz, we sound better." (?)

SCOTT HAMILTON: "Red" parts with "good-bye!" to his worst moments: Math, English, and Biology. He hopes to become a policeman and advises next year's grads to quit before it's too late. (Too late for what, Scott?)

ANN HENRICH: "Little Orphaned" wants to live happily ever after and enjoy her profession as a psychologist. Ann's worst moment was having to listen to people talk about her father. In parting she says, "Where's our school spirit(s)?"

TERRI HOWDEN: "Baby Feet" wants to open a bakery called "The Zit Pit". She was seen being pushed into the boys' washroom (by whom?!) and walking into the boys' change room this year. Any connection, Terri?

KEN KIRK: Ken plans to graduate in the near future (chuckle!) and become a rich contractor. He thinks we need a new school. Planning to take on the job?

MARILYN LEE: "S'long!", says "Mar", whose worst moment at Vic. High was losing a report that she handed in. Her plans include travel for the future. S'long, Mar!

KATHLEEN LO: Kathleen wishes to go to U Vic after graduating from Vic. High. She advises next year's students to carry on the "school spirit" (!?!) and follow the school motto: "no reward without effort".

GAVIN MACKAY: "Sanity is short," says Gavin who thinks the education system needs correction. He was upset by being treated as a subordinate by the janitors. He plans to conduct durability tests on men's clothing.

ROBERT McARTHUR: "Stoney" hopes to become a bartender and go to Europe. (Stoney, the bartender?) He was not happy without two study blocks in one day and advises students of the consequences of smoking in the school.

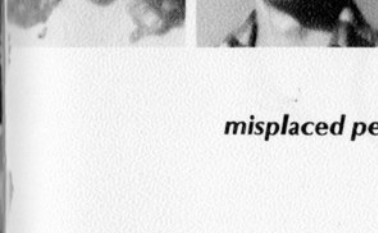

DAVE McLACHLAN: "Wheels" says that he has had no bad moments at the school. After grad, Dave hopes to work for a while and possibly attend university. He encourages the undergrads to get with it next year and make it a better school.

ROSE MULHOLLAND: Rose wants to become a P.E. teacher and spent her time playing field hockey. "P.T." hates turning red when anyone talks to her. Is that why they call you Rose, Rose?

DAN O'GORMAN: Dan's obsession with money is leading him to a career in banking. His worst moment was losing a thousand dollars (where?!). He has good advice to all students — "Don't bring large amounts of money to school!"

DWAYNE PELESHATY: Secret sources have advised us that Dwayne is the fastest guy in town . . . in more ways than one! Good luck with L.T. and don't drive too fast, Dwayne!

TERESA PRICE: "Yeh! Good Bye!", says "Treats" to Vic. High, and tells next year's grade 12's to "Don't get caught !$,%?!" She plans to work and travel with her friends.

KEN RATCLIFFE: "Wayne's brother" says his best moments at the school were his trips to Disneyland with the band. He hopes to go to university if he can think of something to do. "Brain" advises next year's grade 12's to smile at teachers.

KIM ROBINSON: "Sweathog" leaves by saying, "It's been like getting out of a 12-year jail sentence, and I'll never break the law again!" Her worst moments included skipping out and not getting caught. Easing the sentence, Kim?

WILLIAM SAWYER: Bill didn't have any worst moments at Vic. High (!?) and hopes to go to B.C.I.T. or into carpentry. He wishes good luck to the future grade 12's.

ANNA SOMKUTI: Anna admits her worst moments at Vic. High were spent in the boys' washroom. (Really? What is the attraction about that place, anyway?!) She aspires to become a "filthy rich" legal secretary after grad.

SHAUNA WARNOCK: "Saun" may be seen in the jungles of Biafra reforming socially inept pygmies. Watch out! She'll be tuning in on Vic. High during her breaks!

JEFF WIGGINS: "Wiglet's" farewell parting words "faired well and parted"! He plans to be seen with a Miss T.W. and own the best boat in town. He says, "If you've made it this far, go all the way!"

LESLIE WRIGHT: We might be wrong, but could it be that Leslie didn't hand in a questionnaire? Are we wrong, Wright?

misplaced persons:

NICK BENNETT: Springs wants to go to S.F.U. for track with R.C. in the future. Bones, as he is also known, grew ill hearing Spoon's jokes for the 5th time. He's glad that his 12 years of loving school are finally over!

ODE TO A FAT PERSON

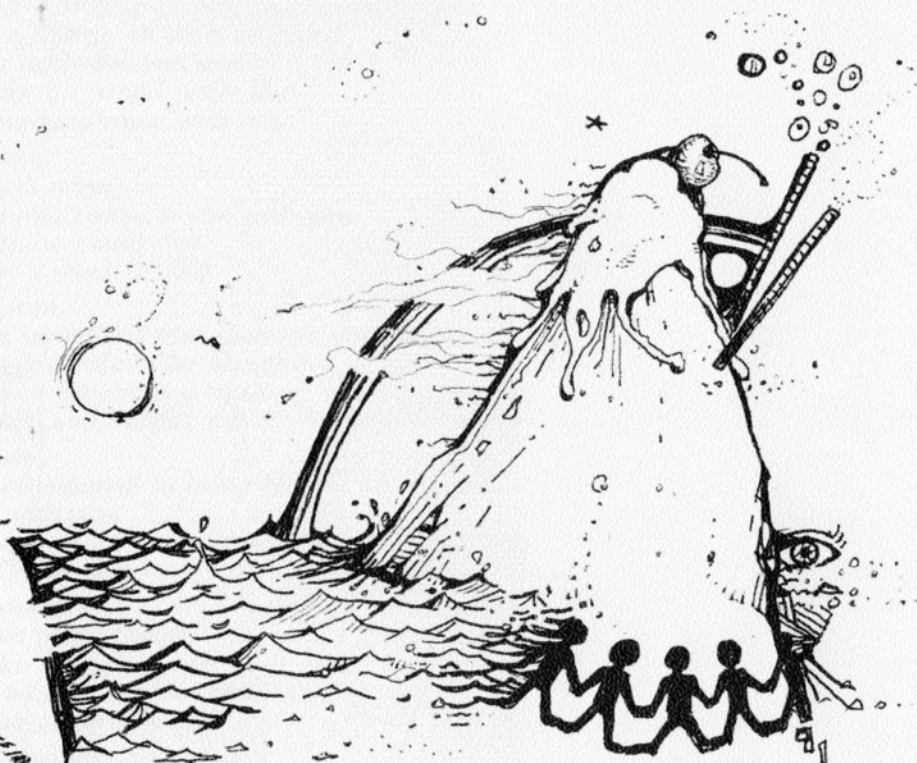

Food oh food the lord's worst sin
I'm filled with more junk than
My garbage bin.
I know of course, that I'm to blame
But I just couldn't resist that candy cane!
The Baker's shop filled with heavenly smell
I'll eat a donut and go to hell
The ice cream man comes riding by Oh god how I want that Eskimo pie!
The nuts, the beer, the pretzel's too
Ding Dongs and Twinkies are something new
My sweet tooth grows larger
Along with my weight
My O'Henry's and Smarties
Arrive by the crate.
My habit grows worse as each day goes in
My nerves need settled by a licorice gin
I know if I look, that I'll find the cure
But it's dinner right now, I look
Later for sure!

THE ADDICT

Head is constantly spinning.
Nerves jumping.
Mind floating.
Everyday's the same.
Like you're always playing the game.
Trying to remember your name.
Future becomes past.
Heart's beating fast.
How long will it last?

Death

Death is a part of living sad although it seems each of us working and giving but never having time for our dreams
Fulfill your life and care
will no longer be able to share in a life that has gone away
So, don't think of yourself each day even though suffering in sorrow remember what matters is today for there may not be a tomorrow.

Sherri Dickson

Dear Mom and Dad
The war is done,
My task is done,
But Mom there is something great
I must tell you.

I have a friend, oh such a friend!
He has no home you see
And Mom, I would really like
To bring him home with me.

Dear Son,
We don't mind
If someone comes home with you.
I'm sure he could stay
Perhaps a week or two

Dear Mom,
There's something else that you must know,
Mom, please don't be alarmed.
My friend fought in a battle,
Was hurt, and lost his arm.

Dear Son,
Don't be alarmed to bring him
Home with you.
Perhaps he could come and visit for a day or two.

Dear Mom,
He's not just a friend,
He's like a brother, too.
That's why I want him with us,
And like a son to you.

Before you give an answer
I really don't want to beg,
But my friend fought in a battle
In which he lost his leg.

Dear Son,
It hurts so much to say
My answer must be "no".
For Dad and I have no time
For a boy that's crippled so.
So months go by, a letter comes.
It says their son has died
And when they read the cause of death
The shock was suicide.

Days later when the casket came
Draped in our country's flag,
They saw their son lying there without an arm or leg.

CHILD SLEEP

Under the covers your eyes flash from side to side, searching. Trying desperately to sleep but every noise; a cannon, keeping you from safety. Squirming and turning you see something. Flipping the light you say "It must be hiding". Cozy and warm your defense slowly weakens and you awaken to a new day.

LEAVES

The leaves fell down on and upon the ground with the colors of yesterday
yellow, red, and brown
How nice to see them flutter down so gracefully they came yet one nor another were not the same

I WALK UPON THE SAND

I walk upon the sand swept carpet and I hear the peaceful waves roll in.

My back feels the warmth of the sun as it shares its life with me.

The soft-blowing wind lifts my hair behind me as a servant would a king's cape.

I notice how calm the shells lie in their places chosen only by nature.

An artist has created beauty — I am content.

CRYSTAL RAINBOWS
Crystal rainbows of sorrow
Arch upon the snow
 Frozen
In the midst of throbbing dance Held captive in tendrils of ice
 Freedom . . .
 only shadows
 Hope . . .
 only the light

THE LAZY SUNDAY MORNING

Lazy Sunday morning
There's dew upon the grass
A longourous creek cascades
Down a winding pass
A sleepy village reawakens
As it turns from dusk to dawn
The rooster crows at a dreary hound
Who replies with a lazy yawn
"Get up, get up, it's almost six
Time for church you know
The horse and buggy are all ready
Hitched just ready and rarin' to go"
The preacher stands his bible in hand
Holding open the big front door
And here comes old Jud chewin's his cud
He spits in a pot on the floor
Mory Lere's wearing her brand
New chiffon and its smeared
With ribbon and bows. There's Jake
The farmer pullin' his hat over his Eyes and getting ready for his Sunday doze.
You know what I think I'll do after church
After it's over and said
I think I'll go home take off my shoes
And jump back into bed.

Without

— No one can know my wrath.

— No one shall feel the heat from my anger

— No one will understand the torment which I suffer in my heart.

The agony, the pain, the betrayal
and the heartaches
that follow;
all of this, from seeing you with someone else.

To You From Me

To you from me

I think often of that special year

And in my eyes there are many a tear

I always thought of you as a special friend

As I still do, even after the end

But now I must find another way

To look at tomorrow as another day

We both have our lives to live

But yours will be better, you've so much to give.

E.M.T.S.

LOVE YOU

The tears stream down my face
Everyone asks why
Only a few know
My life has gone through a change
I met you
You formed me to love you
And no one else
Now you are gone
I will wait for your return
Which will never be.

Cheryl

PASSIONLESS

It's odd,
Today,
I feel all my passions,
As if illegal and damaging to society,
Have been jailed.
It's even odder though,
That it doesn't frighten me.
All I ask of you dear sirs,
Is that you feed them well,
Quieten their coo's and their gaa's
For you see, they are yet young
And cannot fend for themselves.
Keep them well, don't fret!
Shortly, very shortly, I'll be back with the bail.

You

You make yourself happy
You make yourself sad
You think of the good things
You think of the bad
You do it yourself
All on your own
These emotions are yours
And yours alone
No one can make you
Happy or sad
It's you who does
The good or the bad
Your emotions are yours
They make what you are
Only you can leave a scar
So make your life what you want it to be
Be proud of yourself
And let the whole world see.

I am part of all that I have met.

— Tennyson —

Numerous activities this year provided interesting extracurricular entertainment. Several morning skits, lunchtime variety shows (performed by the Brown Bag Theatre Company) and evening dances, were among the events which students attended, and cherished.

Is this a dance, or are they just holding each other up?

Dances were held for those who felt inclined to spend an evening lally-gagging all over each other. The first dance was the most spectacular.

A group of young entertainers, who tour the United States and Canada, came to Victoria and to our auditorium to present their production "Up With People". The event was a welcome break from studies.

The band was busy this year raising money for their trip to Southern California where they marched down Main Street in Disneyland playing "Colonel Bogey". Side trips included visits to Universal Studios, Hollywood, Sea World of San Diego, Disneyland and San Francisco.

"Up With People" was enjoyed by all.

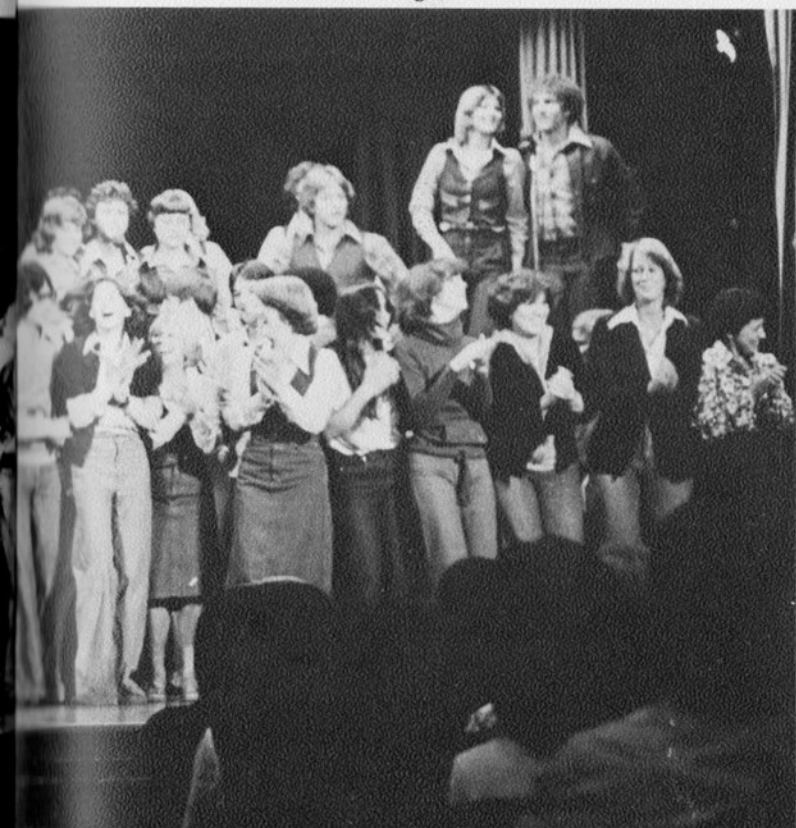

"Home on the range."

Students blowing their own horns.

Standing ovation from one appreciative audience.

Camosun '78 — Show of the Year?

Before the annual Miss Camosun Contest began, the Camosun staff performed in an entertaining variety show which received some very favorable comments from the audience.

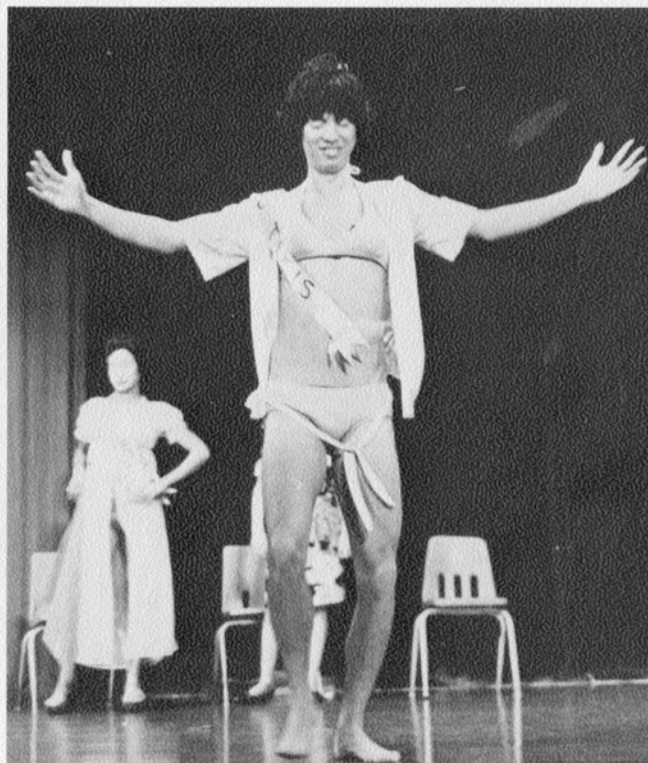

This year we had eight contestants in the competition. The contest was close, and the judges, with the help of the audience, chose this year's Miss Camosun on the basis of the question, "If you had one wish, what would it be?", which each contestant answered to the best of her ability. The luscious and sensuous Miss Tiger (Gary O'Donnell) was crowned Miss Camosun 1977-78.

"Waltz of the flowers." Roses or dandelions?

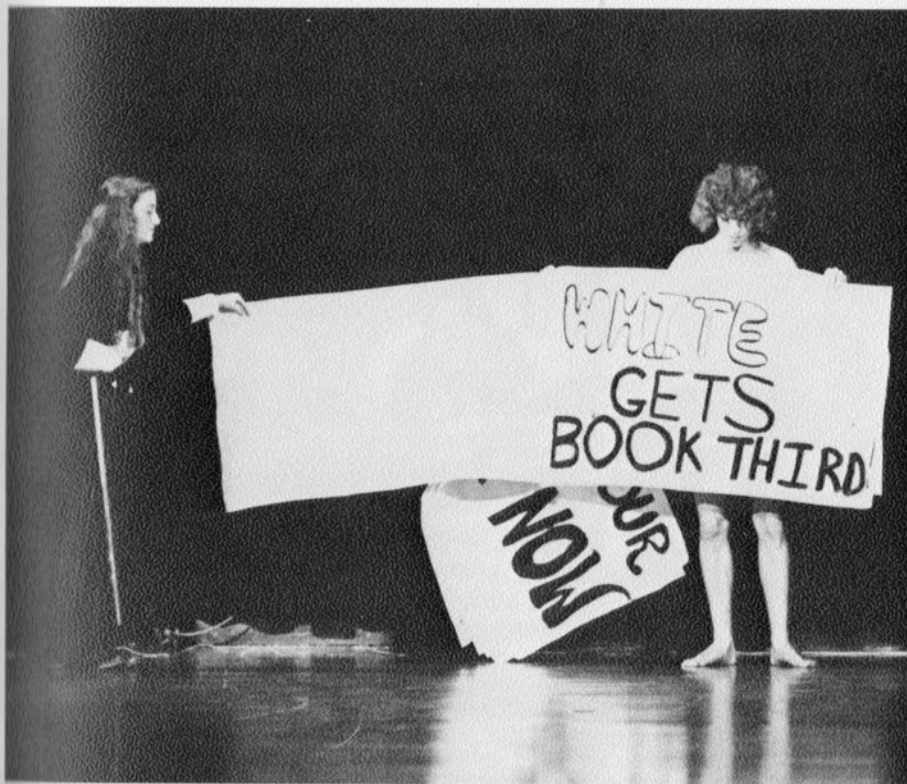

98 Miss Tsasquatch-Dennis Low.

Miss Tiki-Gordon Chan.

Miss Totem-Harvey Thorau.

The big cover up.

"I'd wish for a figure like Dolly Parton's."

"Take it off Gary!"

What a bawd?

"Watch where you put those hands."

Circus preparation was just as much fun.

Promotion and preparations for the circus began early in the year. Donations were collected from businesses and ticket sales were spurred on by draws for $25 gift certificates.

In total ticket sales the top three divisions were 7, 22, and 16. Each member of division 7 received gift certificates from McDonald's. All these ingredients combined to make the circus an event to be remembered.

Funny Farm

"Freeze, we've got you covered."

"Next time it won't be a pie, dear."

Look at that co-ordination.

Congratulations to Division 7 — Top Ticket Sellers!

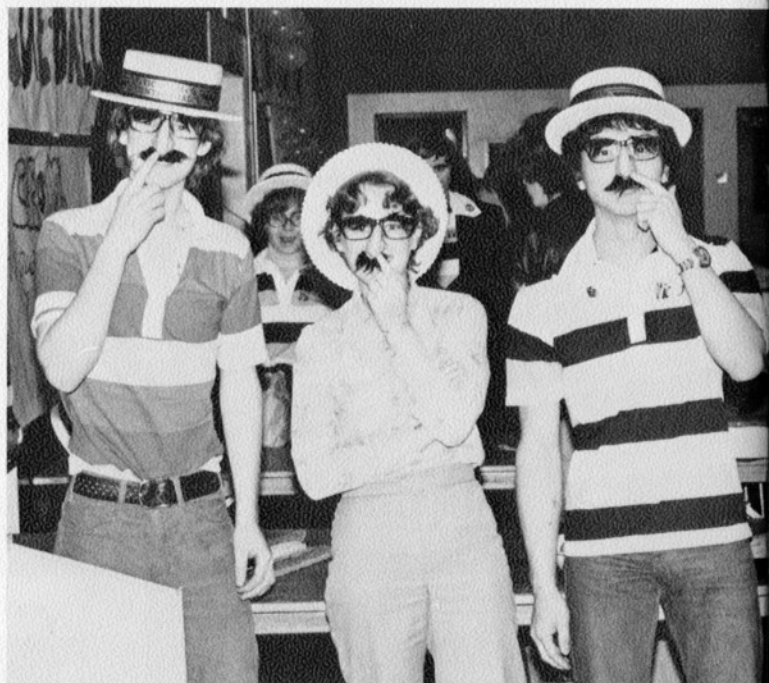

Ah, now the truth comes out!

Circus Night was finally here.

The circus provided fun and excitement for everyone involved on December 2, 1977. All divisions cooperated to make a smooth-running production. Pre-circus ticket sales, and circus promotion by Vic High students made this a lucrative fund-raising event. The festivities included games of skill, popcorn, cotton candy and button making, and sales of different kinds. Of course, the highlight was watching the teachers get a pie in the face! We look forward to the next Vic High Circus.

For 25¢ you get day old popcorn.

The 3 moustacheers

I love cream pies ...

in the eyes ...

in the hair ...

oh ... everywhere!

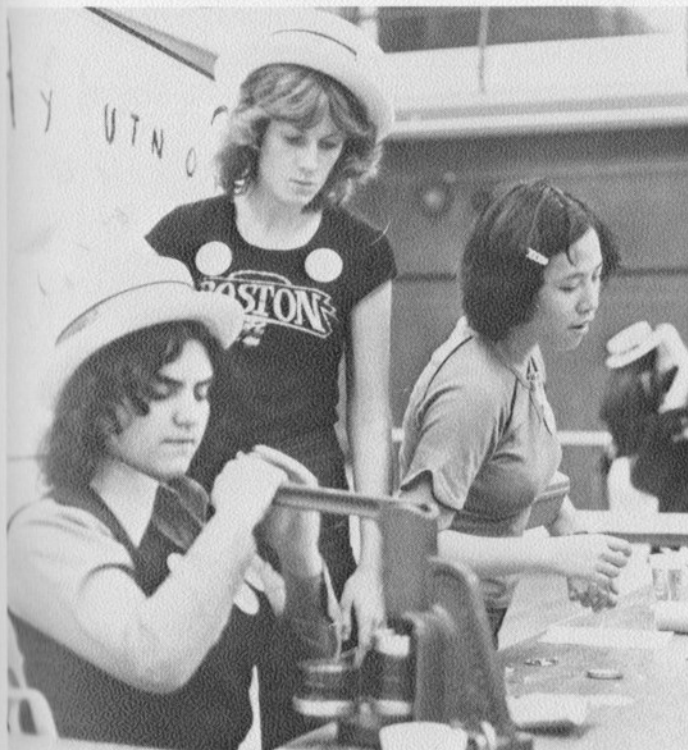

"When did you last wash your hands?"

"It's almost the same shape."

Mm'mm good!

"So that's how it's done."

"Right on target."

What happened to the ball?

When the party's over the fun begins.

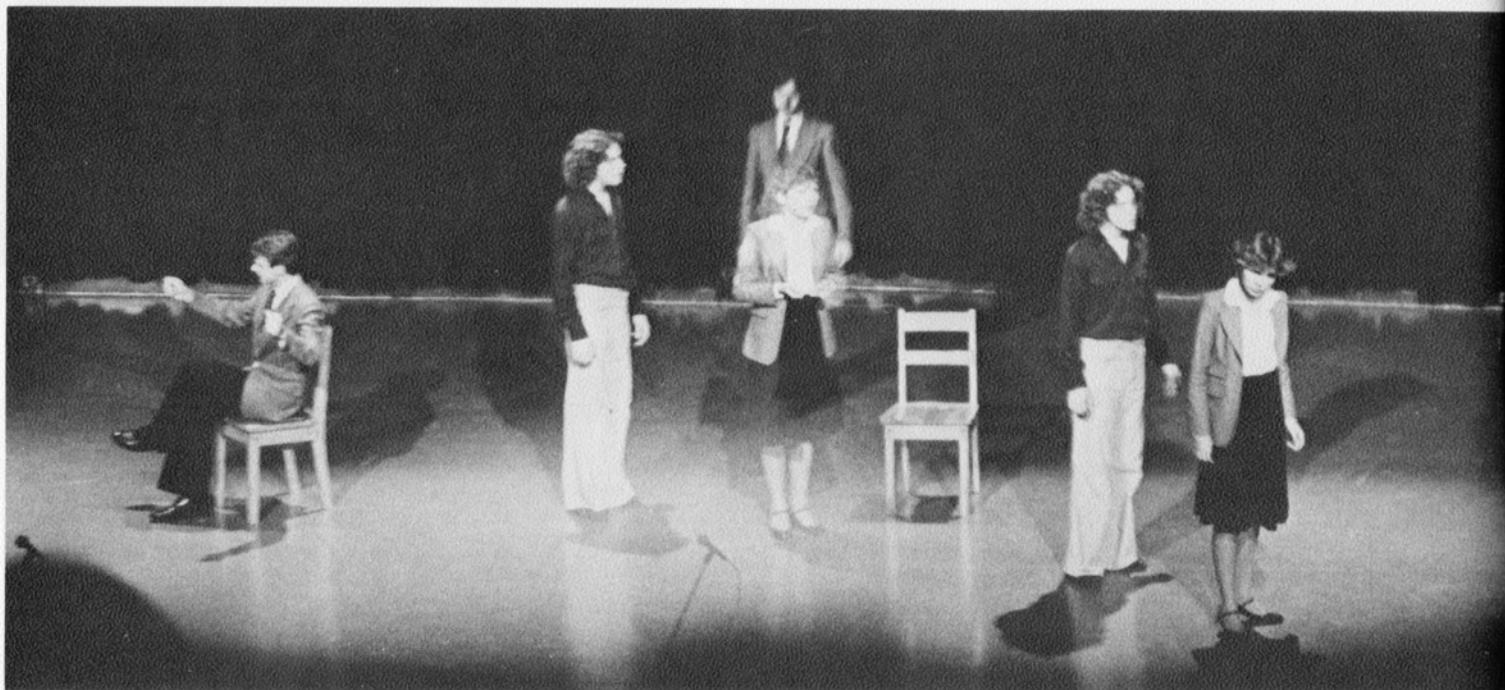

Variety Show '77

A star at her best.

"What are you doing after the show tonight?"

Double trouble

The variety show was a memorable portion of the circus. There were three showings on circus night, each about an hour in length. All the performers practised their parts to perfection. The success of the show can be credited not only to the actors but also to all the people involved in its preparation. We're sure the audiences valued each of the shows presented that evening.

"An encore would suffice."

"The mike or your life."

The Variety Show performers demonstrated their talents. Singing at the piano was Ingrid At-trott. The modern dance club did their own choreography for the jive number. Paul Curtis was hassled by hoodlums (Barry Shaw and Jamie Straith) in another act. "Wandering", with Russ Morrison, Geoff Burns and Angie Pietarinen, was an interesting portrayal of the life of one man. The trio of female vocalists, who rendered popular songs, were appreciated by enthusiastic audiences. Sandy Marwick, Colleen O'Donnell and Joanne Norgaard danced to "Piano Rag". "Liberated Red, And The Big Bad Wolf" was a spoof of "Little Red Riding Hood" featuring Jocelyn Styles and Marilyn Wallis. Last, but not least, Tony Hamilton consolidated the Variety Show by bringing a bit of Hollywood to Vic High's circus.

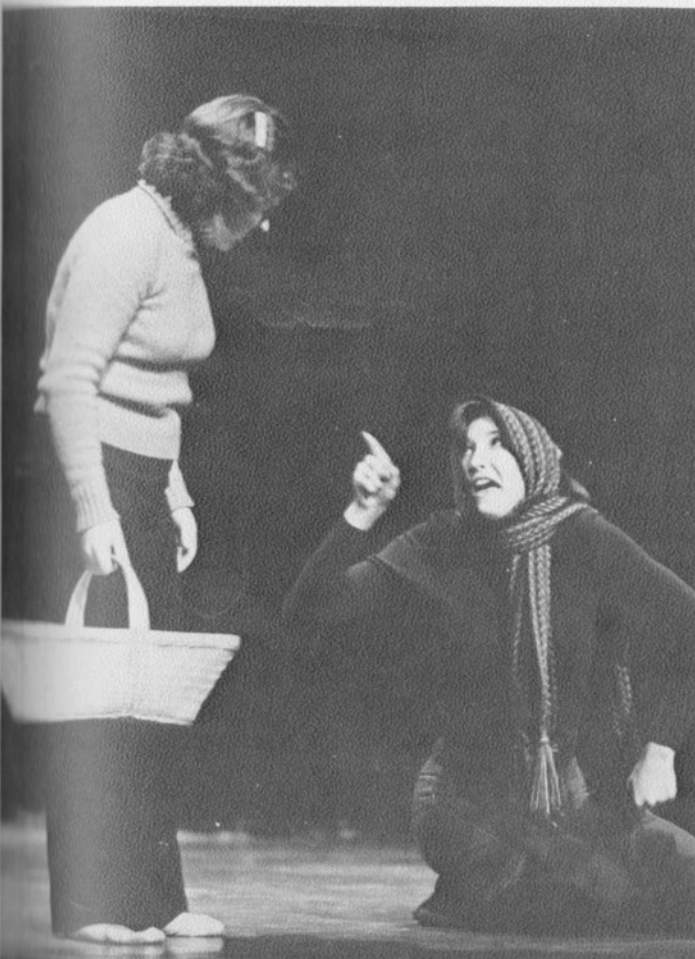

"Introducing Chris Fagg ...

... Amanda Watson ...

... Marilyn Wallis"

"And I did it 'My Way'."

"You watch them, they're all big bad wolves."

Around the middle of the month of February we had a coin drive to raise much needed money for school activities. It was a "battle of the sexes". Upon completion the males were declared the richer of the two. The following day a slave auction was held and the legs of female volunteers were bid upon. Those purchased served their masters for the duration of a day. Janet Lorimer's lovely legs went for ten dollars! Don't we all wish we were so lucky?

"Did I shave them last night or the night before?"

"Hubba Hubba, ding ding. Look at the legs on that thing"

This year a group of Vic High students hosted an "Almost Anything Goes" meet. The effort of these people was well recognized. The schools participating were: Claremont, Reynolds and Vic High.

Reynolds walked off with 95 points. Claremont jogged with 100 points and Vic High, in all its glory, came out running, on top, with 115 points!

Action photos of "Almost Anything Goes" were taken and lost by Albert Low.

5 point penalty to Vic High for smiling.

Eat Igor, eat!!

Under the supervision of Mr. Denis Johnston, our Reach for the Top Team competed with Southgate, of Campbell River, and Oak Bay. Vic High defeated Southgate but in a very close game lost to Oak Bay. Those selected to represent Vic High on the team were Tom Harding, Brock Russell, Phil Bailey and Ann Leung. We'll get you next year Oak Bay!

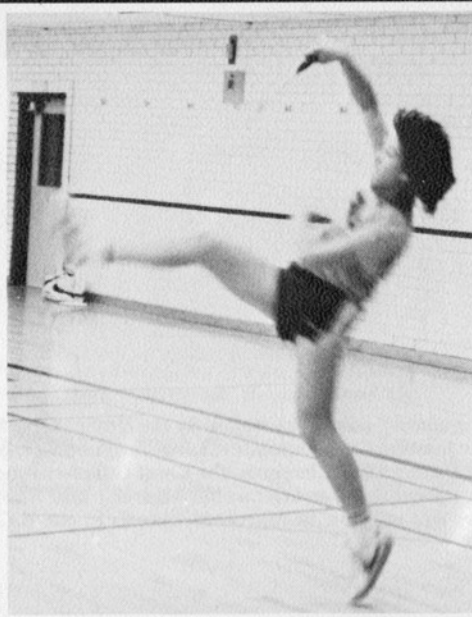

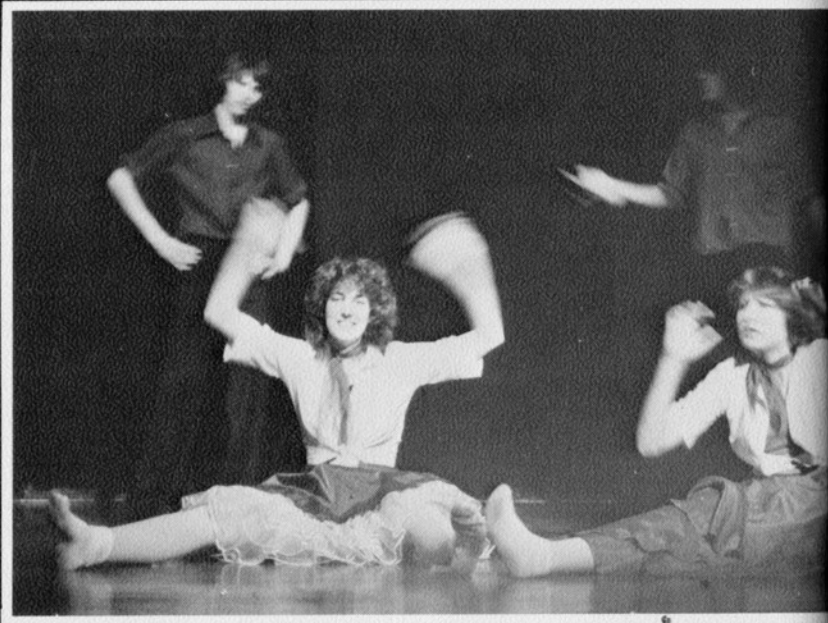

"And the winner is ...?"

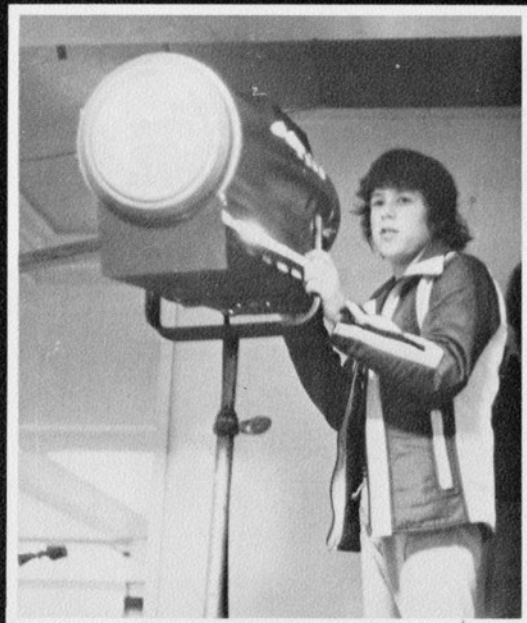

"The Cagebirds" was a play staged by the Drama Club featuring eight girls, who represented caged birds. The actresses were: Jennifer Greenwood, the Long-Tongued Gossip; Sandy Marwick, the Medicated Gloom; Fern Russell, the Mirror-Eyed Gazer; Vikki Clements, the Great Guzzler; Angie Pietarinen, the Regular Thump; Casey Camp, the Constant Twitting; Stephanie Farrington, the Mistress; and Marilyn Wallis, the Wild One.

This play was selected to represent Victoria in the B.C. High School Drama festival in Terrace.

Tikis Place Third in B.C. Championships

This year the Tikis completed another successful season winning all their league games. After placing first in the Centennial Tournament and third in the Spectrum Tournament, they swept undefeated through the lower Island Tournament, coming up as the Island Champions. The team then travelled to Comox where they achieved a much deserved 3rd spot in the B.C. Championships. Well done Tikis!

Rebuilding Year For Tsasquatches

With only 4 players returning, 1977 proved to be a rebuilding year for the Tsasquatches. Hard work helped them achieve 3rd place in the Vic High Invitational Tournament and the winning spot in the Mt. Doug Invitational. They held third spot through the city championships, but, unfortunately fell to a disappointing 6th place finish in the Islands. Many thanks to Roger Racine and Mr. Barnical for all their help, and Mr. McCarron for his sponsorship.

Tomahawks Host Centennial Tournament

The Tomahawks ended a fairly successful season by placing sixth in their league. This entitled them to enter the Island Championships, in which after some tough competition they placed ninth. They also hosted a Centennial Tournament, achieving a well deserved first.

A Strong Year For Tyees

The Tyees enjoyed a fine season, finishing 2nd in the league and advancing to the Colonist Cup with a one to zero triumph over the league champions, Mt. Doug. The team lost a hard fought final to Spectrum, three to zero. Congratulations to all members for their success.

Success Again For Titans

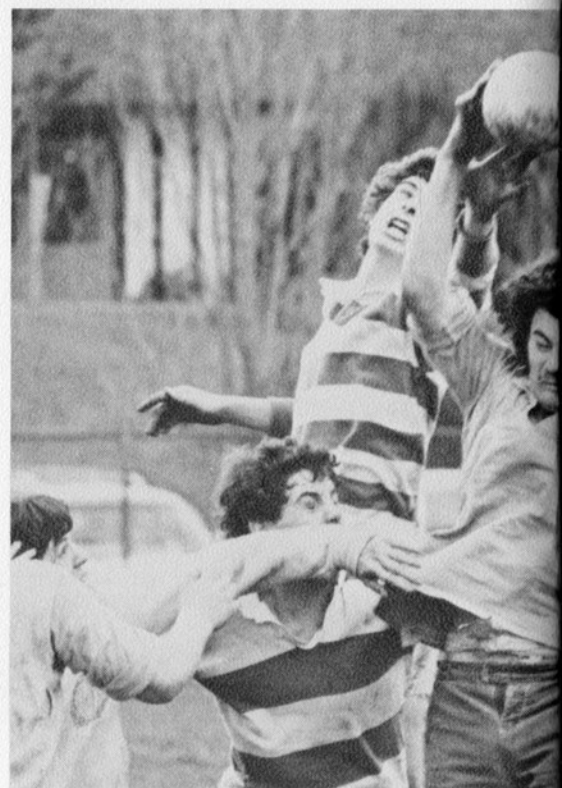

The 1978 Titans rugby squad was again successful this year. At the time of this report the team had completed a full round of league play undefeated. Early results of the Howard Russell Division indicate that Vic High will again be in the play-offs. Competition with Claremont and Oak Bay is very close, in fact we won the Claremont game 12-10 with a clutch penalty goal by Mark Wyatt with only twenty seconds remaining. If we make the Howard Russell Final it should be an extremely close and exciting game. The strength in the squad this year is the excellent team play developed over the past two seasons. There are a number of returnees from last years squad which toured the United Kingdom and won the Provincial Tournament. The team will be playing in the play-offs as well as in the tournament to California. The tour will include three games in California and hopefully a start of an annual event. We will play in Davis City, San Jose and San Lorenzo during the Spring Break.

Vic High Tigers Reach B.C.'s Once Again

The most outstanding feature of the Tiger's season was the tremendous improvement shown over the months. Led by captain and centre Sandy Lewis, a three-year veteran of the team, the Tigers earned a berth in the B.C. Championships held at Chilliwack. On the way, they built a record of 18 wins and 10 losses in league and exhibition play, placed 2nd in the League, 2nd on the Island, and 7th in B.C. with a 3 and 3 record. At the Island Tournament in Courtney they had Janet Lorimer as Honorable Mention, Kim Peterson on the second All Star Team, and Sandy Lewis on the first. They also won the trophy designating the Most Sportsmanlike Team. Congratulations!

Totems "A" Basketball

Totems started what might have been a successful year by taking 2nd spot in the Centennial Tournament and placing Bob Godfrey on the first All Star Team. Unfortunately the Totems were withdrawn from League games following disciplinary action.

Tiggers No. 1 In League

The Tiggers finished a 5-0 season with a first place standing in their league. They also competed in the Stelly's Invitational Tournament in which they placed 3rd. They would like to extend their thanks to coaches Dean Potter and Bob Godfrey, and also to Mrs. Egan for her sponsorship.

Another Successful Year for Vic High's Swim Team

Although half of our "A" team graduated in 1977, Vic High still managed to win the City and Island "A" trophies and place eight swimmers in the B.C. Championships. They won their share of medals but were overwhelmed by the large and powerful teams from Vancouver. Greg Reid won the City Boys' Individual Trophy and Dave Anderson placed sixth in the B.C. Diving Championships — Vic High's first entry into diving.

Our "B" Team was equally successful, with twenty swimmers entered, winning the Island Novice Swim Meet beating out second place Belmont by 30 points. Every swimmer entered won ribbons in this meet with the team amassing fifteen firsts, nine seconds and a number of lesser placed ribbons. Mr. Packford and Mr. Somers wish to thank this year's team for their splendid efforts, spirit and enthusiasm.

Tuk Toy Yuk Tucs Reach Islands

The Badminton team was extremely strong this year placing 2nd in the city along with two other teams. They beat Mt. Doug in the semi-finals which enabled them to play in the Lower Island Finals. Playing against a stronger team they lost a hard fought battle and achieved second place. Many thanks to Mr. Higgs and Mr. Tobacco. Top L-R: Mann Chow, Neil Chan, Garry Sam, Mr. Higgs, (coach). Bottom L-R: Francis Bodenchuk, Lena Ngai, Dimpal Basi, Marla Chow, Barbara Glendinning, Anne Domke.

Enthusiastic Participation for Cross Country

The Cross Country team was fairly successful this year competing in eight competitions. With all their hard work and determination they managed to place fifth in the Islands. Many thanks to Mr. Newell, their coach.

Curling Club

The Curling Club was managed by Mr. Baur and met each Monday after School at the Victoria Curling Rink. The members learned the object and skills of the game and many of them participated in bonspiels. In particular, some of the members were involved in bonspiels against Vancouver, Richmond and Nanaimo teams. Steve McGregor, the president of the Curling Club, helped organize many of the activities.

Straight as an arrow.

Clean sweep.

Bowling Club

This year, the Bowling Club, under the direction and guidance of Mr. Williams and Mrs. Stokes, finished an excellent season. There were 14 teams at the beginning of the season led by president Gordon Chan. Every Thursday after school, about 30 enthusiastic bowlers eagerly utilized their skills to get strikes, spares and "gutterballs". They entered several excellent bowlers from Vic High into the city tournament and came up with six winners. Gordon Doak edged out Gordon Chan to win the single boys event. Ed Jackson and Dale Hughers teamed up to win the boys double. Kelly Wenzel and Joan Miljoin won the girls double with Kirk Wenzel winning the boys overall scratch total. To all bowlers — well done and keep up the good work!

"Gutterball!"

Table Tennis Club

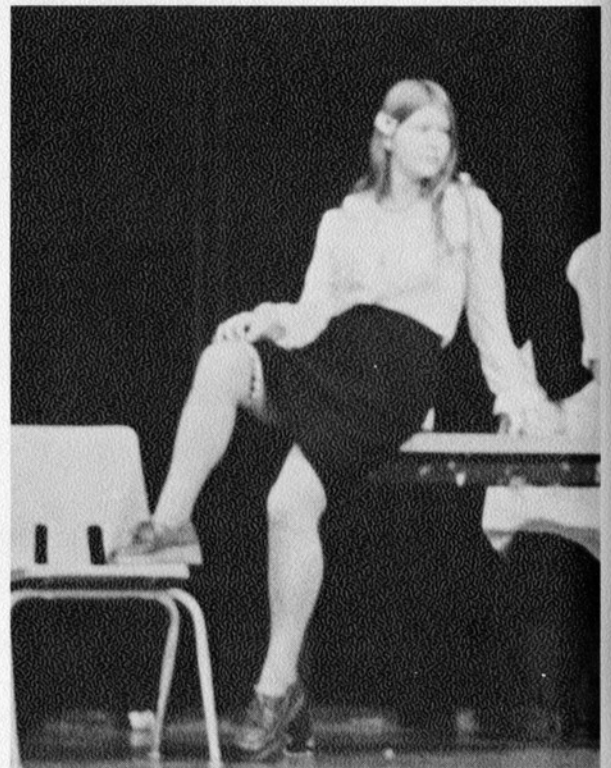

This year Kathy Lo the president of the Table Tennis Club planned many fun tournaments. Among the schools played were St. Michael's and St. Margaret's. They also had a homecoming tournament for all of last year's grads. The boys teams did quite well in all of their tournaments, while the girls tried very hard to beat their competitors. Thanks go to Parliament for supplying all essential equipment and Miss Westman, the sponsor, who spent a lot of time and effort to make this a successful and enjoyable year.

Calamity Players

Calamity Players had 12 active members and were an informal club. They had 3 successful skits, all of which were group discussed and written. The co-sponsors Mr. Baur and Mr. Mayne were very pleased with the group this year especially since there wasn't any president and the group shared all their ideas.

Modern Dance Club

Every Tuesday and Thursday the Modern Dance Club met at noon in the auditorium. They learned modern dance concepts in areas of Jazz, the Jitterbug and Rock 'n Roll. Some members took part in the Vic High Circus Variety Show. Thanks go to manager Jennifer Greenwood.

Brown Bag Players

The Brown Bag Players were formed in mid-December by a group of drama students interested in raising money to attend the 1978 Drama Conference in Terrace, B.C. The company, sponsored by Mr. Denis Johnston, performed several very successful lunch hour variety shows using the many talents of his inexhaustible, irrepressable, crazy bunch of actors, musicians and singers. Thanks Vic High for the support you've given them through the past school year!

ABC and D Club

The ABC and D Club was involved in school activities this year. They were in charge of making posters for most of the school activities, as well as decorating the gym for dances. They were indispensable during preparations for Circus '77. They would like to express great appreciation to Mr. Mayne and Mr. Wickstrom for their help and support throughout the year. Their president this year was Tannie Jacox and the vice-president was Adianne Skinner.

Vic High Cheerleaders

This year the Cheerleading squad brought support and Vic High spirit to the games of the Titans, Tyees, Totems and Tigers. They made posters, helped with pep rallies and volunteered their help for many school events. Many thanks to the girls, their sponsor Mrs. Coburn, captain Sue Davis and manager Tannie Jacox, for their hard work and enthusiasm. Back Row: Tannie Jacox, Mary Cochlan, Raymonde Sakaily, Sue Davis, Jennifer Cumberbatch, Adianne Skinner, Mrs. Marnie Coburn. Middle Row: Sharon Steward, Irene Mills, Holly Marsh, Shelley Wardrobe. Front Row: Brenda Campbell, Amanda Watson, Trish Marshall.

"... and that big ol' rooster..."

"... caught that little red hen..."

Ski Club

The Ski Club had a very successful year except for the fact that there was hardly any snow. Their only trip was to Forbidden Plateau and they had a lot of fun. The sponsor was Mr. Blasner, the president Cheryl Coles and the vice president was Sue Tanner. With the help of many club members this year has been one to remember.

Audio-Visual Club

This year the Audio-Visual Club has been really active in school affairs. The use of equipment has increased immensely and the crew has done an excellent job of looking after teachers' and students' needs. The president, James Young led a good crew consisting of Barry Shaw, Bill Lynn, Kelly Fong and Jamie Straith. They could often be found hiding from classes in Room 300.

Library Aides

Our "desk and shelve" continue to serve their fellow students; helping to keep the library running smoothly each lunch hour. Their help allowed the staff to enjoy their lunch hour and relax. Members of the club were Ann Domke, Kathleen Lo, Mary Howard, Kathleen So, Denise Eng, and Thora Gislason. The library staff are extremely grateful to these conscientious girls. Sponsors were Mr. Hopper and Mrs. Pearce.

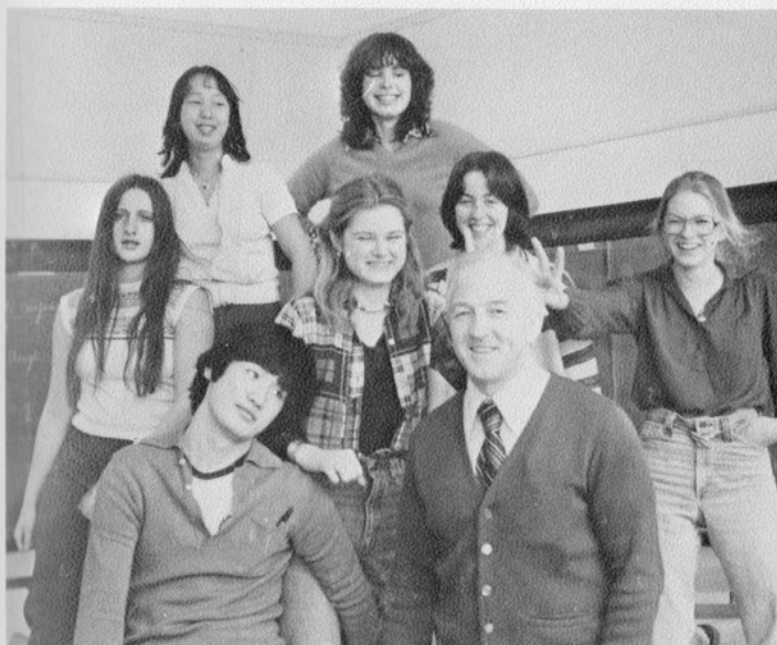

Chess Club

Members of the Chess Club met in Room 202 throughout the year. Sponsored by Mr. Chell, the high level of play that Vic High is known for was visible again this year. The team played in several exhibition matches plus the city tournament. Vic High's Chess Club consisted of Brock Russell, Fred Wong, Robert Reynolds, Neil McAleese, Glen Chow, Karl Ullrich, Alan Lowe and Albert Low.

Debate Club

The second year of Vic High's reborn Debate club has been a busy one, both for the debaters and their sponsor, Mr. Cahill. Debaters Philip Bailey and Tom Harding appeared on Cable Ten's Interschool Debate and Youth Probe as well as CBC's Reach for the Top. Phil and Tom were also chosen to represent Vic High at the provincial debate tourney, the Hammarskjold Cup. Stephen Christian came third in a Jaycee-ettes public speaking contest. All seven club members have entered public Open Space and private extramural debates with other schools. Finally a message from graduating president Tom Harding: "When I joined the club there were only 3 members and now there are 7. Keep building the club. I shall expect Phil and Steve to be the dominant debaters next year and if you are, I promise to fill the first V.I.R.T. or Hammarskjold Cup you win with champagne. I'll be debating at University next year, but shall follow Vic High's further exploits closely and remember Saint Michael's 'Delenda Est' ".
— TOM HARDING

Special-Aides

The Special Aides had one bake sale, the proceeds of which were used to purchase chocolate bars which were given out to the Jubilee Hospital Children's ward. Some members went to visit the Gorge Road and Glengary Hospitals and the residents of extended care homes. Others helped with handicapped society programs and visited Bishop Cridge Home to play with children. The Sp-Aides also had a toy drive before Christmas given to help the Harbour View School hamper drive. The Salvation Army received Christmas parcels as well. Thanks to the sponsor, Mr. McHugh and president Sandy Marwick.

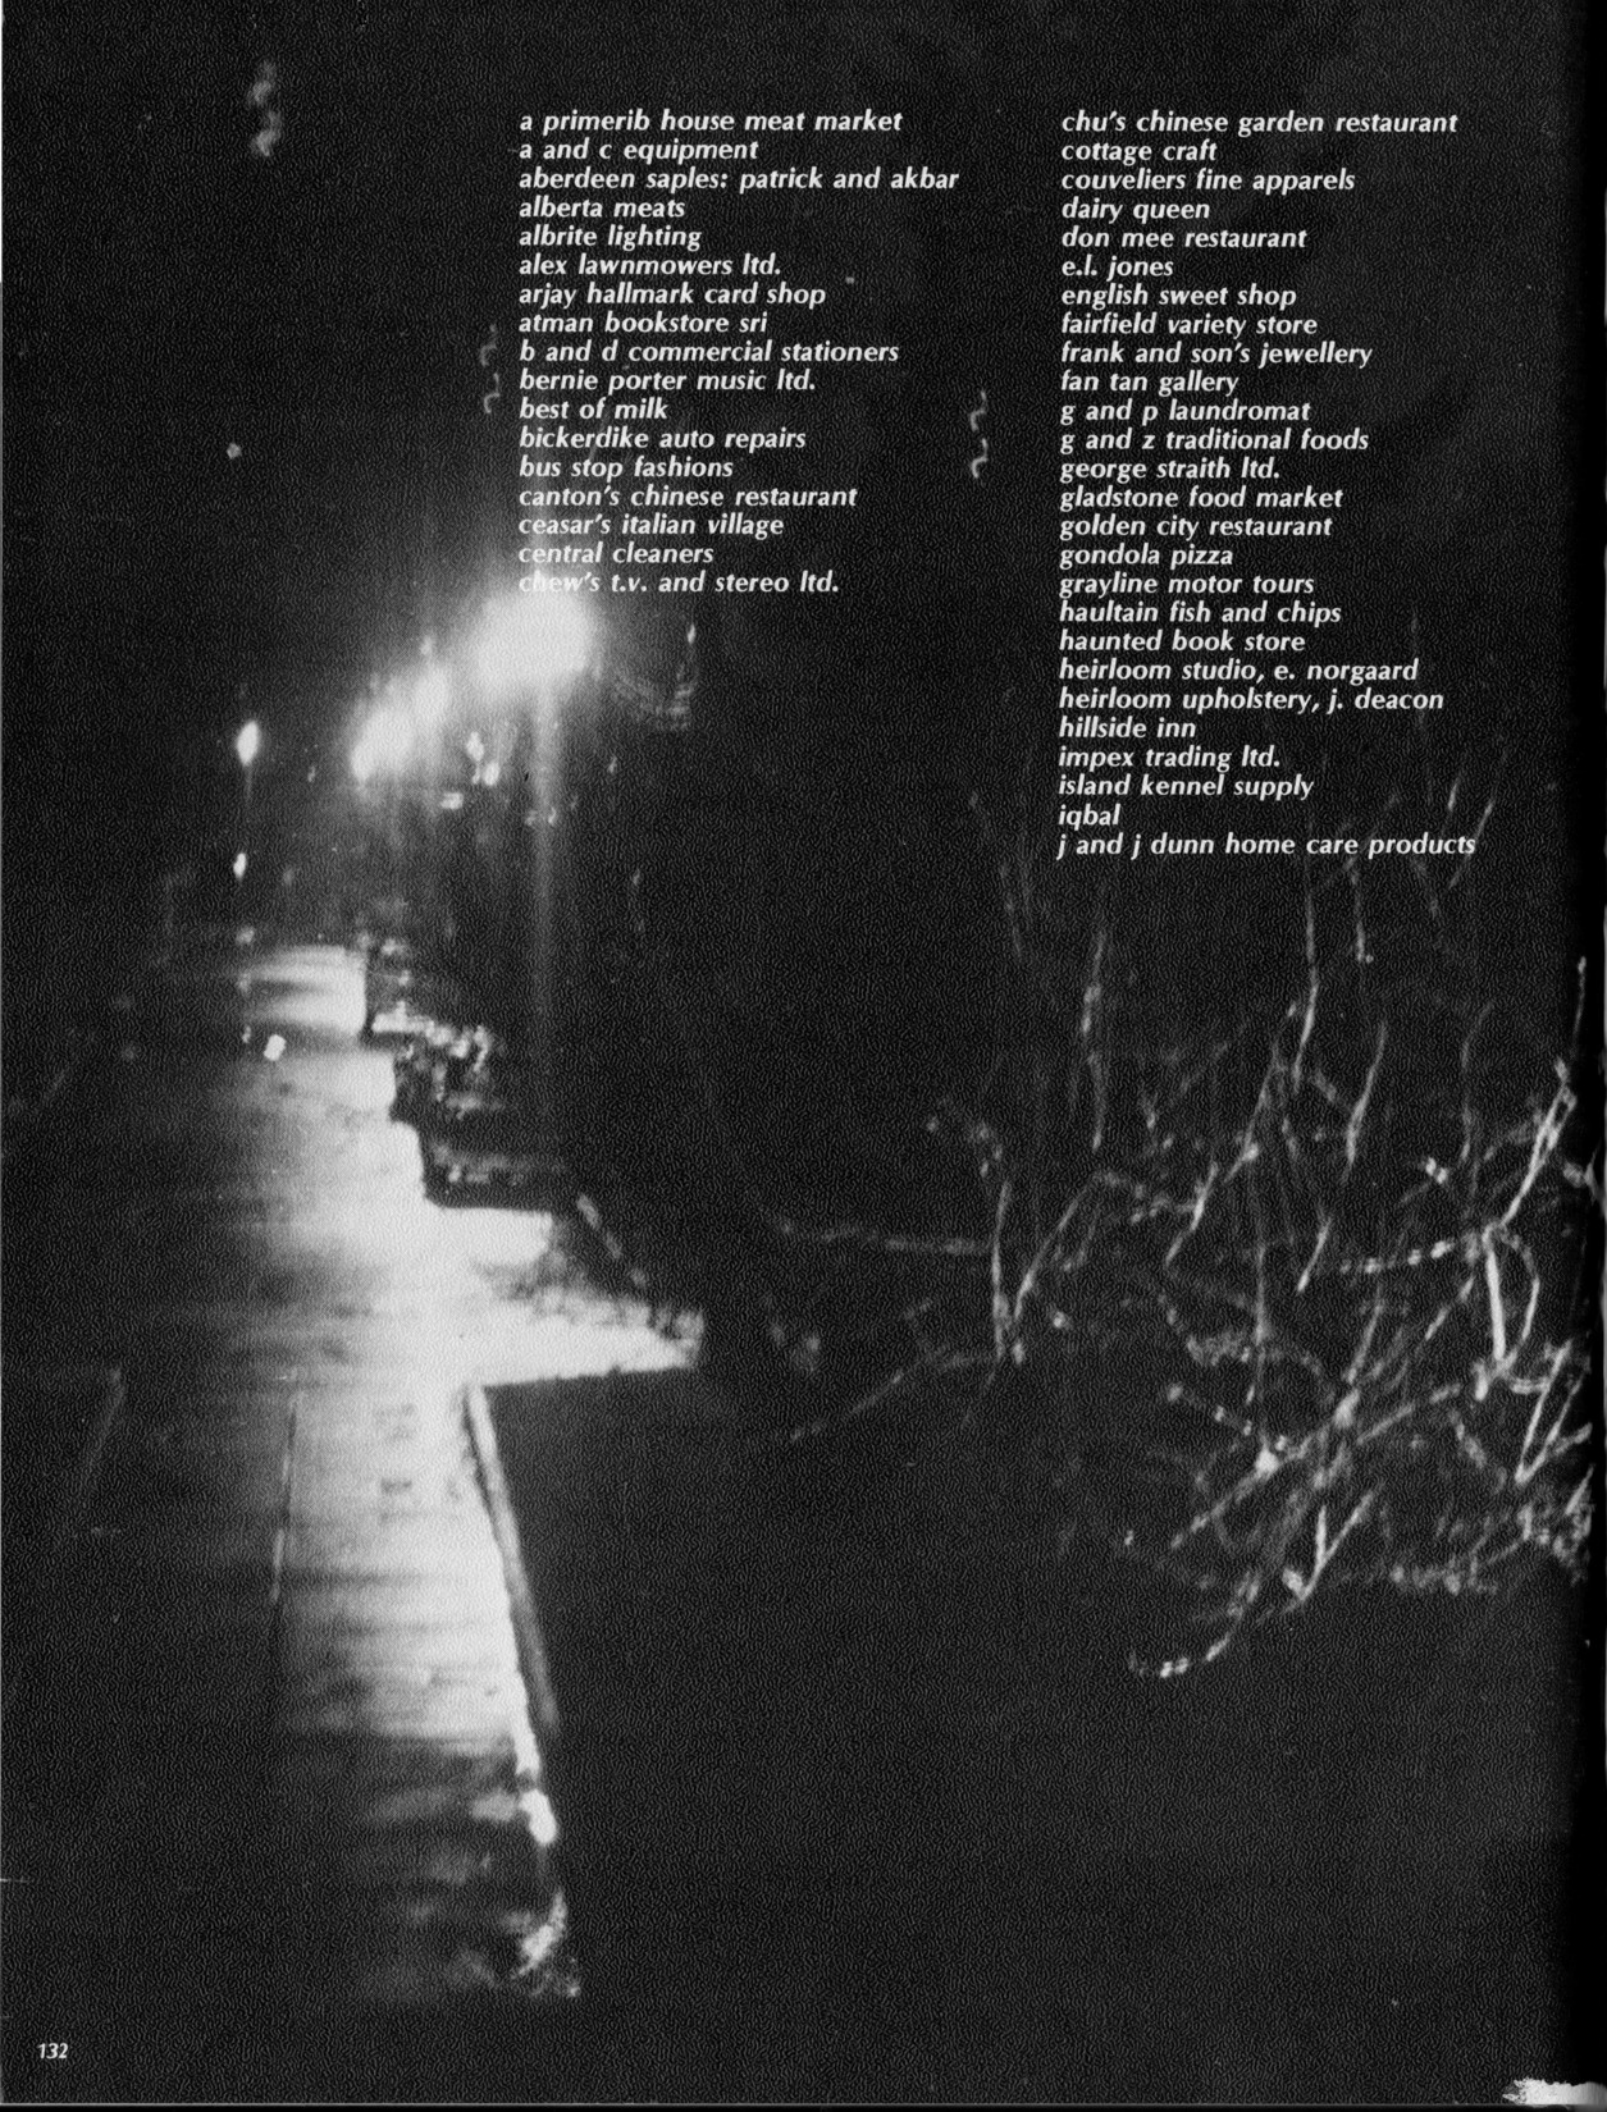

Sailing Club

During the fall of '77 sailing classes were held for any interested students. They learned to read charts, tie knots and to identify the parts of a sailing yacht. About 12 students took part in these classes. They spent many weekends racing and sailing in boats made by Mr. Packford's boat building class. Mr. Wickstrom and Mr. Camp hope that more students will participate in next year's activities at sea.

Time Piece

Time Piece was a small club formed last year by a group who were tired of the apathetic attitude of the student body. They had some trouble with the printing machine this year, consequently slowing down production, but they still managed. They would like to thank their sponsor, Mr. McCarron, for his time and aid. Good luck next year!

to the generous mind the heaviest debt is that of gratitude, when it is not in our power to repay it — franklin

But time did not rest. No, time, as did life continued to play its role because it naturally must go on — and so happy did the adventures of life create excitement for us! Like a movie camera our mind photographed and stored the jewels, the keepsakes of life that we shared together —

The stone is in place forever.

"Write 50 times: I will not call my teacher an aardvark."

"His eye is on the arrow."

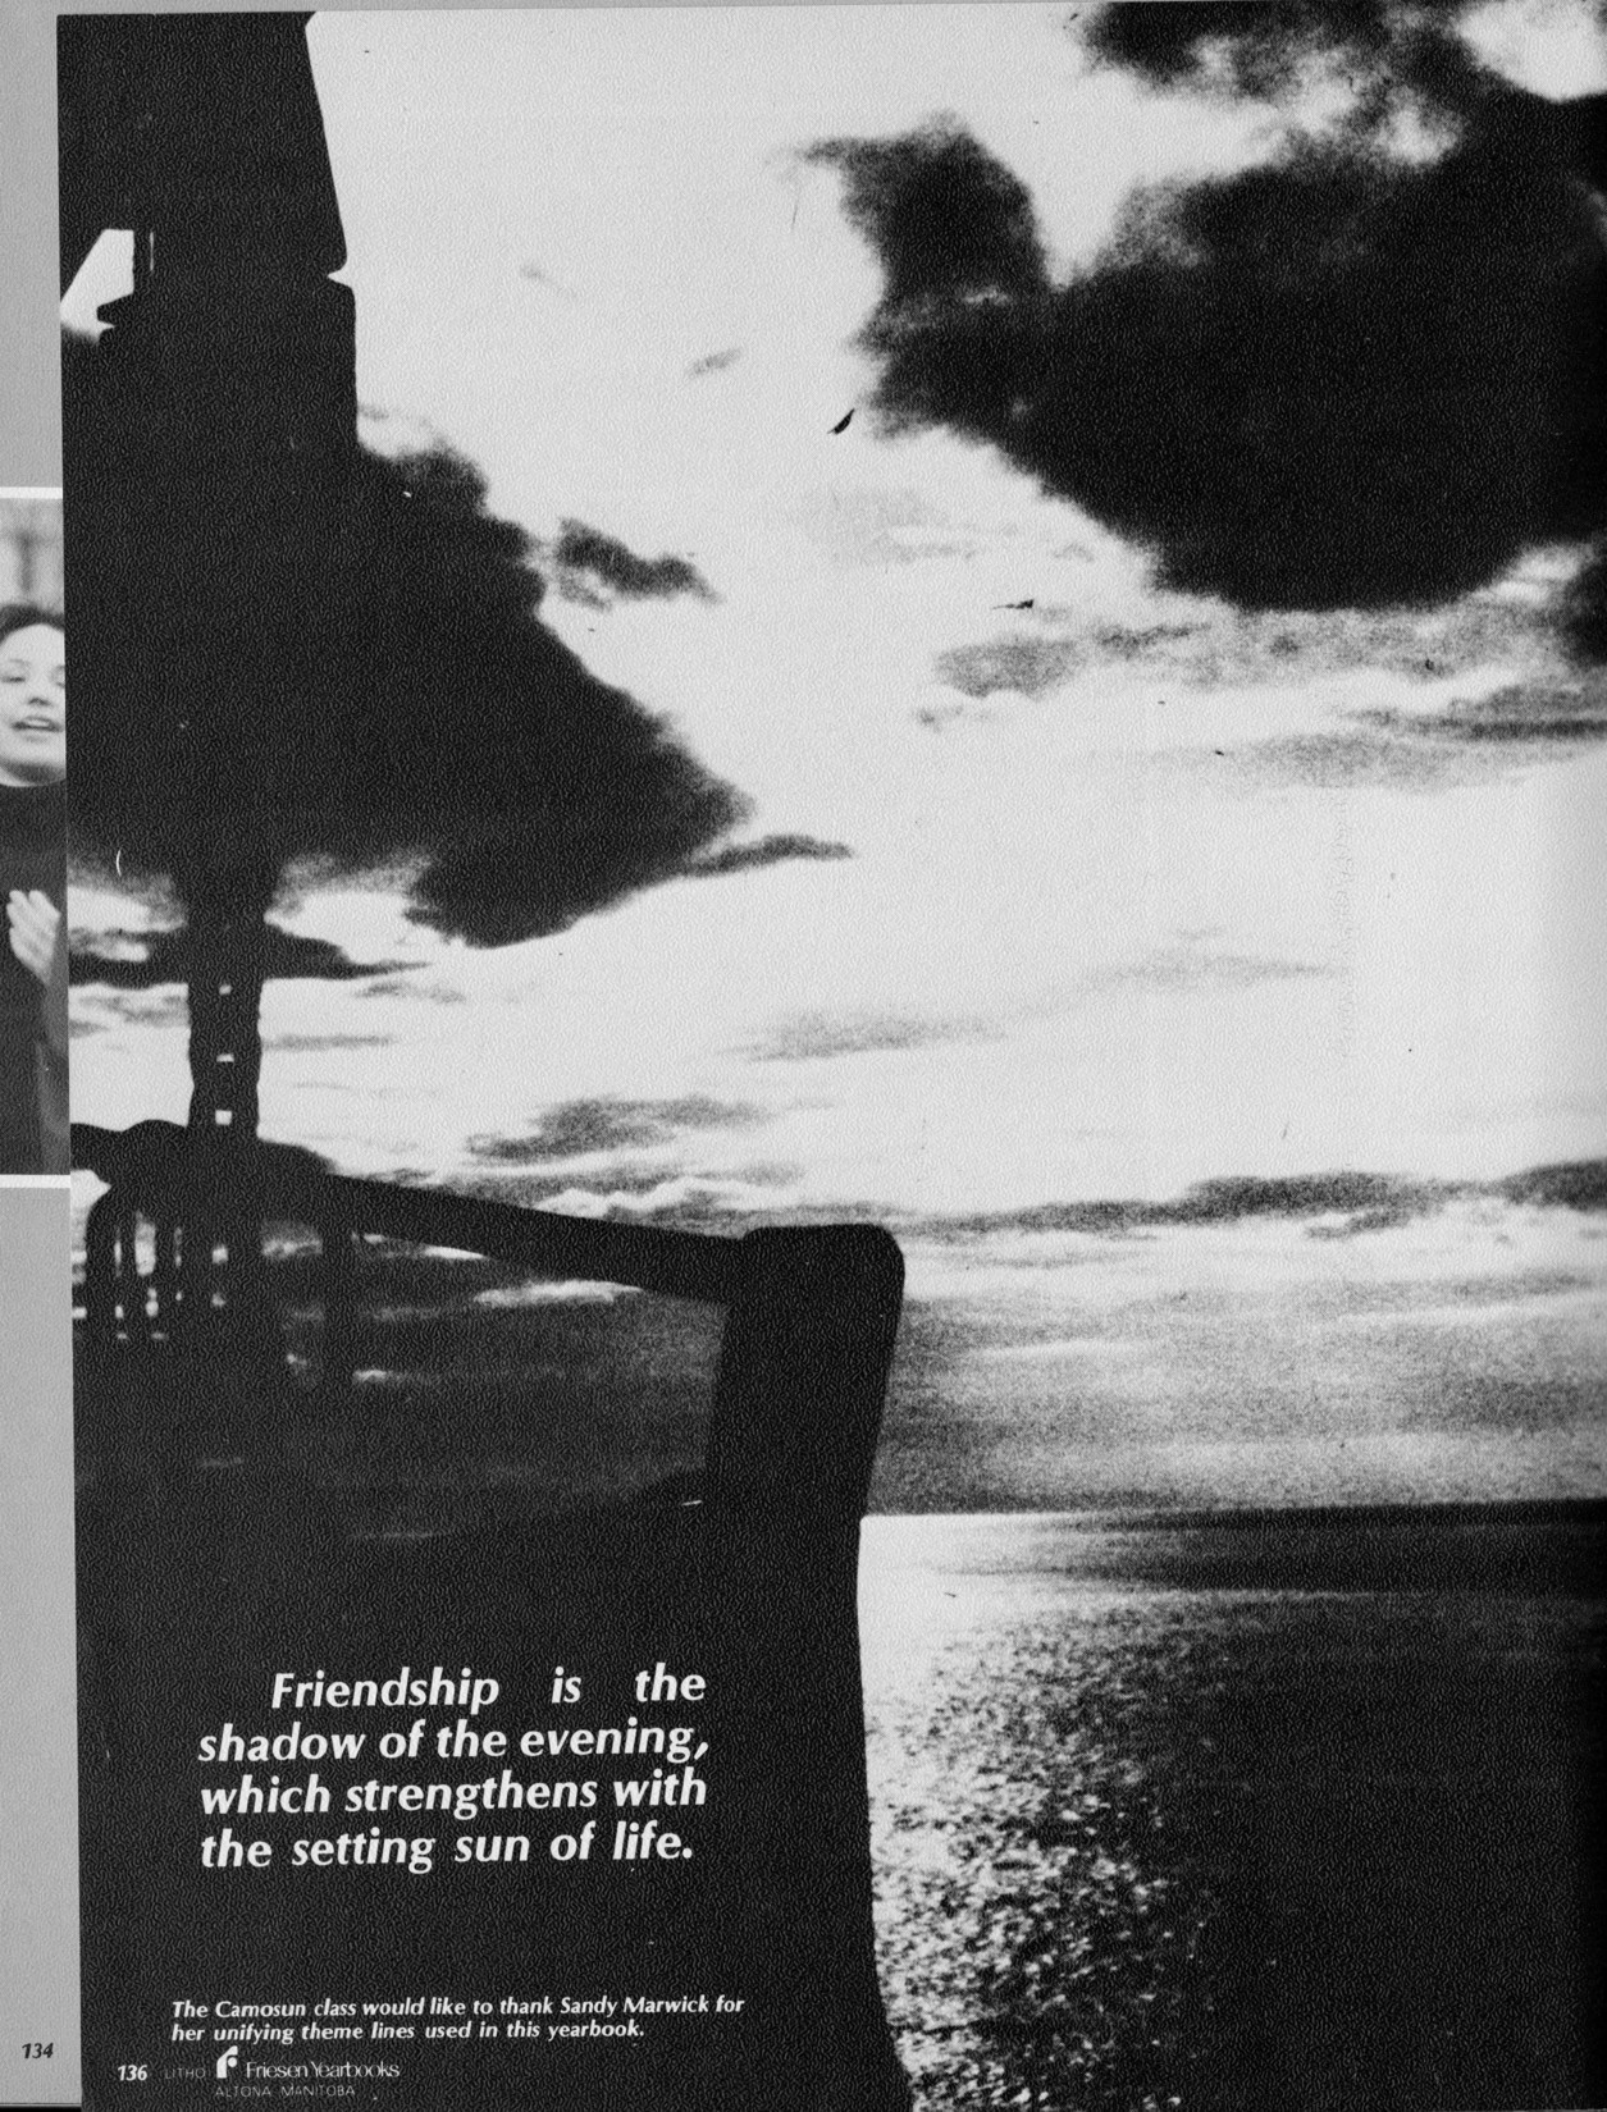

"All for one and one for all."

A helping hand?

So that we may, anytime we wish, look back upon our treasured moments — and love our memories.
